TodayFrank Roach, alleged assailant of Viola Barker, aged 13, on her way to school near Viola, Wis., last Friday was held for trial under bonds of $5,000, after a preliminary hearing at Richland Center this morning on a charge of attempted rape.The court room was crowded with spectators and many stood outside seeking admission when the case was called at 10 o'clock. This morning Roach was taken into the court room strongly guarded by deputies. Sheriff Spry having taken every precaution to safeguard his prisoner in the event of any demonstration. The crowd, however, was quiet and orderly.Dr. Barker, who attended the Barley girl at her home on the day of the assault, testified this morning that the child was not harmed by her assault.The girl told of meeting her assailant on the road while on her way to school, and related substantially the same story as published in this paper the day after the assault. She said that when she recovered consciousness after being struck by the man, she found herself in the woods some distance from the road. She finally found the highway and walked to her home. The child identified Roach as the man who had assaulted her.NELSON SUBMITS

UNLESS CONGRESS CHANGES
BASIS OF APPORTIONMENTWest and South Stand to Gain Most in a Political Way Under the New Census; House May Decide to hold Membership to Present FigureWASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—(By the Associated Press).—Examination of the final census figures of the country, which place the total population of the continental United States at 105,683,108, indicates that the west and the south proportionately will gain more in a political way than the east or middle west through increased membership in the house, more votes in the electoral college and in larger delegations to the national political conventions.This result will obtain whatever basis of apportionment is adopted by congress next winter, fixing the size of the next house, which in turn is reflected in the electoral college and the conventions of the big political parties.As a result of the increase of 13,710,842 in population, fifty new seats must be added to the house to prevent any state from losing any part of its present representation. Should the present membership of 435 be left unchanged by increasing the basis of apportionment, there will have to be a transfer of thirteen seats, now held by twelve states, to nine other states.For the past half a century the precedent has been to increase the size of the house so as to prevent loss of existing representation by any state.As a result the house has grown from 243 to 435 members.
If this precedent is followed this year five additional representatives must be given to California, four each for New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Michigan; three to Illinois and Texas, two to Massachusetts, New Jersey and North Carolina and one each to Alabama, Arizona, Connecticut, Georgia, Maryland, Montana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Virginia, Arkansas and Minnesota.Congressional leaders are strongly opposed to any large increase in the house as they regard the present membership of 435 as too unwieldy.
By holding the house membership to 435, gains would be distributed with three to California, two to Michigan and Ohio, and one each to Connecticut, New Jersey, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Texas and Washington.
To offset these gains, Missouri would be forced to lose two congressmen, while Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Mississippi, Nebraska, Rhode Island, Vermont
and Virginia would lose one each.
All other states would retain their present numerical delegations in congress.STATES APPEAL TO

Chicago District AttorneyWASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Telegraphic appeals to the white house from many sections for relief from the threatened coal shortage and for an agreement on methods of preventing serious conditions this winter have been referred to the interstate commerce commission.Announcement that the commission would deal with the situation was made by Secretary Tumulty after he had conferred with Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio, and Howard Elliott, chairman of the board of the Northern Pacific railroad.The suggestion that it might be necessary to name a coal controller has not been considered, Mr. Tumulty said.Blame Coal Brokers CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—Charges that coal brokers were largely responsible for the high price of fuel were made today by Chicago District Attorney Charles Cline. Mr. Cline declared the cases would be put before the grand jury and indictments against them would be asked.An investigation has disclosed, Mr.
Cline said, that in some cases a ton of coal had passed through the hands of four or five brokers each taking a profit of about fifty cents a ton, before it finally reached the dealer, who sold it to the consumer. Charges were also made that competitive bidding at the mines among the brokers had sent the price up.Coal mined in Franklin county, Illinois, Mr. Cline asserted, sells for $4.05 a ton f. o. b. at the mine. In Chicago yesterday it was being sold as high as $13 a ton.OFFICIALS FAIL

Jersey City and surrounding towns were startled shortly after ten o'clock today by a mysterious explosion. Immediately began an investigation but an hour later had been unable to learn the location of the blast.Several loud reports caused considerable excitement. Many persons believed one of the numerous powder plants in the eastern section of the state had blown up.Cannons of all big powder manufacturing companies and of the gov-brought no information.After several hours of investigation, police and county officials expressed the opinion that the loud report came from a quarry blast somewhere in this vicinity.SHOE OF SHERIDAN'S

OBSERVE ARMISTICE DAYSuggests Services in Honor of Those Who Gave LivesWASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—President Wilson today directed that on Sunday, November 14, the American flag be displayed at half-mast on all public buildings and naval and military posts, as a token of the nation's participation in the Memorial services held for the heroic American soldiers, sailors, Marines and others who gave their lives to their country in the world war.In connection with the order the president authorized this statement:
"There has been transmitted to me a suggestion that I name Sunday, November, the 14th as Armistice Sunday in order that the religious services held throughout the country on that day may be given an especial note of remembrance for the heroic services and sacrifices of those who died for America in the world war."The selection of a formal day which shall annually be set aside to commemorate our participation in the world war will share day memories and already memorial day, rich in heroic memories, has acquired additional significance as being appropriate also to the commemoration of the heroes of the world war. I am, however, so heartily in favor of the suggestion that has been made that I take this occasion to express publicly my approval of the idea."November 11, 1918, will always be memorable as the beginning of the end of the most terrible and destructive of all wars. Our beloved country took a noble part in hastening the arrival of the day hailed by the whole world as the dawn of peace,
but close upon the day of victory followed realization of loss, and the anniversary will bring with it solemn thoughts to the minds of every American, memories of brave men who fell sympathy for their living relatives, and these religious reflections in which nations, like individuals, must seek hope and consolation. That November 14, this year being the Sunday immediately following the anniversary, should be observed in all our churches by suitable memorial services for the heroic American soldiers, sailors and marines, who gave their lives to their country in the world war, seems to me eminently fitting, and proper and I commend the suggestion to those who conduct such services."DRIVE ON WRANGLER

NATION'S MOST DANGEROUS REDSFound With Literature Advocacing Armed Overthrow of the GovernmentTRACE CONNECTION WITH RUSSIAN ANARCHIST GROUPOfficers on Trail of Mysterious Radical Print ShopCHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 8.—Discovery of radical literature in possession of Nicolai John Jazinski, and John Holoeney, declared to be two of the most dangerous radicals in America, who were arrested here last night by department of justice agents, was announced today.In Jazinski's possession was found nearly half a ton of communist articles including samples of a new pamphlet advocating armed revolution by foreign elements in this country. One hundred thousand of these pamphlets,
it was said, were shipped by Jazinski but were traced and are being held for authorities.The agents said documents found in Holoeney's possession gave evidence that Holoeney was associated with a radical Russian anarchist group in America.The agents who made the arrests said they were now on the trail of the mysterious "anarchist print shop" he-lioyed to be located here, and which they declare has been sending out millions of anarchistic pamphlets.It was said virtually every anarchistic document ever printed in the Russian language was found among Holoeney's effects. Chief among these, they said, was the proclamation of the Union of Russian Workers, calling upon all its members to rise and overthrow the government of the United States by force of arms, utilizing murder and destruction to gain their ends.This proclamation was printed in Russian, the agents said, and translation of it revealed a complete plan for the revolution.The two men were taken last night in a raid upon their quarters in a section of the city populated largely by foreigners.

Other Arrests Pending

Arrests of six other radicals in St.
Paul and Milwaukee are pending the department of justice announced today. The warrants have already been issued.According to federal authorities the present plot is one of the most vicious that has so far been disclosed. Not only did its perpetrators seek the overthrow of the government, but they are also alleged to have connived to assassinate the more important officials of the state.WEST FAVORS THE ROOSEVELT, Oct. 8.—Franklin D.

Roosevelt, democratic vice presiden-

With the exception of two or three days he has been traveling contindelivered 335 speeches.He said today he was very much pleased with his second western trip and he had found a tremendous settlement for the league of nations.Senator Harding's definite statement opposing entrance in the league

under any conditions, he added,
"came too late for me to be an actual witness to its effect in the west, but the west was ready for it.""The west today accepts the issue," he said. "An increasing number of republicans who have waited to make up their minds are joining the throng who will vote for the democratic ticket in order that the war against war may accomplish its great purpose and that we may join the forty-

Introduced TonightProvided the bids are satisfactory,
the common council will tonight authorize a contract let for the construction of the Hogan school, the first of the three new school buildings provided for by the recent bond issue voted by the aldermen.Interest in the school bids overshadowed all other important matters scheduled to come up at the monthly meeting of the council tonight. It is planned, if the contract is let tonight, to have work started immediately on the structure which will replace the building destroyed by fire. It is expected the Hogan school will be finished next summer, in time for the opening of the fall term in September.
Following its completion, the bar-nacks, which are housing pupils of the Hogan school district while the new building is being erected, will be moved to the Washburn school to accommodate pupils of that district while a new school is being constructed.The building code ordinance will be submitted to the council tonight for its first and second readings, and referred to a committee. The completed ordinance may be ready for a final vote at the November meeting.
Final arrangements for the municipal league convention to be held here next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, will be perfected at the meeting tonight. It is expected that 200 or more city officials will be here next week to attend the convention.FIXING OF DEFINITE REPARATION SUM IS ASKED BY GERMANYPARIS, Oct. 8.—Germany has reiterated her request for naming of a definite sum of reparations and a new proposal has been brought from Berlin to Paris by Charles Laurent,
French ambassador to Germany.The correspondent learned this today in German official circles, where it was pointed out, Mr. Laurent has emphasized the necessity of immediately fixing the total indemnity to prevent the economic and political collapse of Germany.The French government, it is believed in German circles, is considering the latest request and a decision is expected within a few days.The German proposals ask direct negotiations between Germany and France on all reparations questions.CENSUS OF U. S.
SHOWS GAIN OF 14.9 PERCENTPopulation of Continental U. S.
Announced by Census Bureau on Thursday as 105,683,108NUMBER OF FARMS IN U. S.
INCREASED BY 1.5 PERCENTMany of Best Farm States Show Decrease; Wisconsin Gained 12,069 FarmsWASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—The 1920 population of continental
United States was announced as 105,- 683,108 by the census bureau today.
This is an increase of 13,710,842, or 14.9 percent since 1910.Approximately 12,250,000 people are living in the country's outlying possessions. This would bring the population of the whole United States up to about 118,000,000.Director Rogers of the census bureau said that while the foregoing figures were preliminary and subject to correction, the final official population, as transmitted to congress in December for apportionment purposes, was not likely to be greatly different.

Features of Census

The outstanding features of the report, as announced by Director Rogers, are:Trend of population in the decade has been from farm to the city, and has great bearing on the high cost of living.Slight increase in total number of farms, but an unusually large decrease in tenanted farms of the west and middle west.Large falling off in rate of growth (from 21 percent in 1910 to 14.9 percent in 1920) for the country as a whole is due mainly to an almost complete cessation of immigration for more than five years.Epidemic of influenza and casualties resulting from the world war also big factor in small increase shown by report.What Director Rogers Says
In his report accompanying the figures Director Rogers says:"The results of the census of population in 1920 at first glance may seem somewhat disappointing, and open to question, possibly, but the substantial accuracy of the enumeration in January is fully borne out by comparison with estimates based upon the probable excess of births over deaths throughout the decade and the excess of immigration over emigration."From Country to City
The figures of the present census show that the trend of population from the country to the city has become greatly accentuated since 1910 and that, for the first time in the country's history, more than half the entire population is now living in urban territory as defined by the census bureau.That is to say of the 105,683,108 persons enumerated in the fourteenth census, preliminary tabulations show

RED CROSS HELPED SOLDIERS IN SEVEN MILLIONS OF CASES

Total Cost of Operations from Time U. S. Entered War to Last June is Ten Millions

WORK CONTINUED AFTER SIGNING OF ARMISTICE

Red Cross Workers Still on Duty at Military Stations

WASHINGTON — The American Red Cross gave aid to the country's fighting men or their families at home in 7,000,000 cases from the entrance of the United States into the war until last June. The cost was about $10,000,000. These facts are shown in a statement issued by that organization today. The Red Cross also describes how it is continuing in peace time to aid the world war veterans.

The article is the first of a series based on the forthcoming annual report of the Red Cross and is intended to show what has been done with the funds given by its 10,000,000 adult and 14,000,000 junior members throughout the country.

The signing of the Armistice and the demobilization of the country's great fighting machine did not end the work of the Red Cross. The announcement detailing the new work began at the request of the War and Navy Departments. In addition to the varied assistance given during the last year to former service men, the announcement shows that Red Cross workers were kept at 200 military and naval stations, including 50 outposts along the Mexican border, to look after the welfare of the men.

"Through Red Cross Home Service Sections," said the announcement, "thousands of those who otherwise would have been lost men were placed in touch with governmental agencies that could aid them. The organization also maintained workers in hospitals, furnished recreation facilities and supplies for occupational therapy, in addition to making loans to patients out of funds because of government compensation checks going astray."

Among the families of veterans aid was given to thousands monthly, the cases for December 1919, numbering 31,105 and for June, this year, 17,841. During the intervening period the army decreased its size by three-fourths while the Red Cross Home Service declined little more than one-half.

Hundred of motion picture and other entertainments at hospitals and camps were largely attended, in December the total attendance being 158,482 and that for June being 88,178.

Delivery of $1,000,000 of liberty bonds bought by men while in service also was effected through the Red Cross during the year, there being 15,000 bonds distributed by it for the government. In 263,530 cases of allotment and allowance of War Risk Insurance, the Red Cross was instrumental in securing settlements for the veterans' families. It also prosecuted 50,000 compensation and insurance claims.

Should We Have a National Tree? The National Forestry association has asked for an expression of public opinion as to whether we should have a national tree and just now it is engaged in working up interest in the discussion. There is the walnut, elm, hickory and many others worthy of the honor and the members would like the matter to be taken up in the schools and discussed and the results of the discussions reported to the organization. One of the most valuable of trees is the walnut which is rapidly being exterminated and to present this the association has planted 150 bushels of seed on specially prepared ground on Mount Alto and these should produce 100,000 seedlings by next spring.

BLESS THE RIGHTEOUS

THOU, Lord, will bless the righteous; with favor wilt Thou compass him as with a shield.—Psalms 5: 12.

THE G. O. P. PROBLEM

MORGAN, republican nominee for attorney general, defends his stumping against Blaine, republican nominee for governor, on the ground that he promised to do so from the stump and was nominated after reiterating that promise.

Blaine, who bolts part of the republican platforms, national and state, was nominated notwithstanding his speeches constituted a promise not to support these platforms in their entirety.

If Morgan is justified, so is Blaine. If campaign speeches can be made substitutes for official party platforms, anybody can play at the game.

When Taft first ran for the presidency he was dissatisfied with the national republican platform, and he issued a supplementary personal platform.

Blaine has a good precedent for adding his own views to the state republican platform. But the difference is that Taft repudiated no part of the official party platform, merely amplifying it. Blaine outright repudiates portions of the platform of the party as whose candidate he stands.

It would seem that in adopting its position regarding the political irregularities of Blaine and Morgan the state central committee can hardly escape the logic that "sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander".

But this goes no further than the record as recited above. Should Blaine's retaliation against Morgan take the form of opposition to Lenroot, in no sense a party to the political defalcations in question, the central committee would be confronted with a duty to neglect which would be to jeopardize the fundamental principles of political party organization.

EDISON AND HIS SPIRIT MACHINE

THOMAS A. EDISON has the habit of accomplishing what he sets out to do. When he announces that he is at work on a machine that is intended to make possible easy communication with the dead, one looks forward to talking to the departed if the departed are in any condition to be talked to.

Surely no ouija board-like contrivance will come from the Edison laboratory. One expects a device of cog wheels, wires, curious dials, levers, motors, etc.

What a prospect it is! No more irritating Delphic utterances from a more or less inspired medium; no doubt at all.

Very likely getting a line to George Washington, Uncle Absalom, or any other of the departed will be easier than getting a telephone connection with the corner grocery store.

Any spellbinder may refer the crowd directly to the party's hero for an opinion on the present candidate and his policies. No more unconvincing assertions such as: "If George Washington were alive today, what would he say to the proposition? Fellow citizens, he would say," etc., etc.

No more lost wills, no more murder mysteries.

Hurry, Mr. Edison! Please hurry! Everybody's just as eager and anxious as can be to call the Astral central.

But stay! Suppose through the machine it is learned that Cousin Jonathan isn't where he was supposed to be?

Never mind about hurrying that machine, Mr. Edison.

WILLING TO LEARN

WOMEN have long since learned the value of profiting by their next door neighbor's experience. The best cake recipes, the most efficient method for removing stains, have been handed down from generation to generation and interchanged from friendly back door to back door.

American womanhood, individually, never has been too proud to learn. As a newly enfranchised collective power, still willing to learn of neighboring countries now instead of neighboring kitchens—women have it in them to control the manner of solving many national problems.

"Learn of France" is the gist of an article called "A Square Deal for the Nameless Child," by Dorothy Canfield Fisher, appearing in the Pictorial Review for October.

After explaining in detail how France makes every nameless baby a ward of the state—France has no institutions for children born out of wedlock, their care is paid for by the government in thoroughly supervised private homes where they grow up among other children as members of a family—Mrs. Fisher calls attention to some statistics on this country's 34,000 yearly illegitimate births that are hair-raising.

"They disappear," says Mrs. Fisher, "into a world the awfulness of which is beyond our imagination no track is kept of them, no government inspection made of what happens to them."

Now comes, in part, the story of the institutions caring for such children as quoted by Mrs. Fisher:

"Here is the record of another institution month by month: In January twenty-nine babies were admitted and twenty-one died. In May that same institution received twenty-two new born babies; twenty-one of them died. In September they took in fifteen and sent thirteen to be buried."

If there is a single human soul which is not responsible for the illegitimacy of a child, it is that child. And every child, it is thoroughly agreed, has a right to "life" first, and in the continuation of that life, "Liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Child problems are peculiarly women's problems. It would be distinctly worth America's new voters' while to investigate France's handling of this particular stain.

The New Yorker who was divorced by his wife because he wore tweeds to an evening function evidently thought dress clothes were "soup-or-fish-ial."

Four thousand Vienna doctors are on strike. Whenever there's a strike in Vienna it seems the whimsical thing to do is to speak of the Vienna loaf.

Fifty-cent hair cuts give the freak election better more excuses to wager he won't enter a barber shop till his candidate wins.

Edison is working on a machine to talk to spirits but he'd better look into Ouija's patents.

The Russian crown pearls are being sold and thus the tears of a goddess become profiteers.

The news is inconsequential but fifty years ago milk was selling for thirty cents a gallon.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

The gigantic task of dredging Lake Winona, the contract for which is held by the La Crosse Dredging company, has been tackled. Operations will be carried on until the lake freezes over and will be started again in the spring.

Rabbi I. Lomansky of the Hebrew Association of Dubuque, Iowa, will speak at the Jewish Synagogue on North Eleventh street, next Sunday.

Manager F. J. McWilliams of the Bijou theatre has installed a new moving picture machine. It embodies all the latest patents, including a device for showing colored moving pictures, Thomas Edison's latest invention.

Arrangements have been made to get a dredge from Fulton, Ill., to begin work on Riverside Park.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Funds are being solicited here and elsewhere to rebuild the Dakota Catholic church which was struck by lightning early Saturday morning during the electrical storm and was completely demolished. The church was erected only a few years ago and was considered one of the finest edifices in the village.

Senator Marcus Alonso Hanna, republican campaign director and the latest addition to the McKinley spellbinders, will speak in La Crosse on Oct. 17.

While engaged in teaching his Sunday school class Sunday morning, President Bice of the board of public works, was summoned by the foreman of Holway's mill to assist in preventing a crib, to which logs were tied, from being destroyed by high water. President Bice had several piles driven and returned to his Sunday school class.

Mr. Charles Linse, the veteran dairy farmer of the town of Shelby, has turned the butter business over to his son and will himself engage in the milk business on the most scientific and up-to-date plan.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Members of the board of trade are agitating the question of arranging for running a ferry across the river on a five or ten minute schedule. At present it takes the Warsaw two hours to make the round trip, much time being taken for loading and unloading. People are always waiting and much of their time is wasted.

Arthur Schroeder, an energetic newsboy of the city, brought in a list of twenty-five new subscribers for the Daily Press today. This is the largest number brought in by one boy.

Among the vehicles seen on the ferry boat this morning was a canvas house built on a wagon. Inside were a bed, gasoline stove and table, and it contained doors and windows. In the front was a driver's seat upon which sat a man and his wife who were journeying from South Dakota to Michigan.

The St. Nicholas church fair opened auspiciously at Germania hall last night. It will be held all this week.

Registration books at the various voting precincts were opened today.

BLACK POMS

BY DOROTHY DOUGLAS

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

John Blackmore was bored to suffocation in the big city called New York. Glancing out of his boarding house window to the sunny street it seemed to him that every man passing was jaunty and happy and had an unmistakable air of being on his way to get the Only Girl and take her out for the afternoon.

John had no Only Girl nor even a half-way girl to go to see on Sunday. And Sunday without a girl was worse than an egg without salt. John hated his own company. He liked having good friends, but had been forced to leave them all when the firm he worked for sent him east to fill a most flattering position.

John felt to pondering dully on what he would be doing were he still out in the homelike small town where every one knew every one else. Lily, Blay, Mary or Caroline would be going out on the river with him. Lily, Blay, Mary or Caroline would have on a freshly ironed white dress with spotless white shoes and a great floppy hat to shield an adorable face from sunburn.

No John would be eating happily from time to time under that hat. There would be a neat box of lunch with food in a thermos and plenty of home-made chocolate cake. Later there would be a glorious sunset, still later a more glorious moonrise, and still later under that wonderful moon, he, John Blackmore and Lily, Blay, Mary or Caroline would perchance steal a moment or two from lovers' hours before taking the weary but happy trip home.

John had read his Sunday paper from cover to cover, all but the advertisements, but so homesick did he become that he picked up the sheet again in sheer desperation and began a careful review of the "Lost and Found" column. There might possibly be some drawing string in those personal notes.

One did attract John. It was an advertisement for the return of a black Pomeranian answering to the name of "Pet." The girl who had lost Pet was apparently dying slowly but surely over the loss. John grieved for her. Her name was Jane Montgomery and she lived up in what John had always termed the End of the World, being 181st street.

Now John's ideas of Pomeranians was a bit vague, but he determined to find something in the way of a dog and take it to Jane. There was always a faint chance that Jane would be attractive, worth while and all that sort of thing. John was a very hopeful type of man and he very much wanted a girl with a freshly starched white dress to take out on Sundays.

The married couple in the room behind him had an animal that closely resembled a dog. It had short black hair, a tail that waved in the air most any angle and long spindly legs. Mike was, however, the most beloved pet of the couple. Perhaps Mike had played an important part in the couple's wooing. John hoped Mike was a mascot. He decided to borrow Mike.

He knocked gently at the rear door and told his scheme. The couple being newly married and full of romance agreed willingly. John tried his teeth when he saw Mrs. Woodruff. Her gown was pink and fluffy and her hair was blonde and white. She had a pink parasol and she and Henry were about to start for a Sunday afternoon boat trip. Henry went so far as to scratch the name, "Pet," on a bit of leather he had used for a wrist watch and encircle Mike's lean neck with it.

The Woodruffs laughingly wished John the very best of luck but firmly insisted on the safe return of their beloved Mike.

"She must not be so attractive to you," John said, "Mike away from you," Mrs. Woodruff admonished.

John grinned. "If Jane Montgomery is as attractive as that," he stated, "I will buy Mike an ermine cloak for next winter."

And feeling in his bones that he and Mike would be promptly put off either subway or elevated John jumped into a taxi with the animal and gave the chauffeur an address at the end of the world. John cared not in what manner he spent some of his excellent salary so long as it was in quest of the right girl.

Mike had never had so long a ride in a taxi, but he seemed to enjoy it, since his great floppy black ears pricked up from time to time and when John addressed him the straggly tail wagged happily.

John pulled himself well in hand when they drew up at the curb and tried to get into the atmosphere of a man who had found a lost pet Pomeranian and was firmly convinced that the animal he had was that same dog.

He and Mike went up three flights of stairs to apartment 3 and rang the bell. It was answered by Jane herself. John pushed Mike well to the front and gazed questionably at Jane. Jane was all, and more, than a hungry, lonesome young man could desire.

When she caught sight of Mike her eyes took on an expression that was difficult to define. And when they met John's lit up with a twinkle that prompted a grin from John.

"I found this Pomeranian and the name Pet is on his collar," lied John, and hoped she would invite him and Mike into the tiny, cool apartment.

She did. Jane led the way into a most divine little sitting room that seemed a tower of pink geraniums and nasturtiums.

"Are you a dog fancier?" asked Jane, sending a swift glance straight into John's eyes, then a long one at the up-Pomeranian tail of Mike.

"Well—I did not suppose Pet was a pedigreed Pom, but I did think he might have a tooth or a hair or two that was sufficiently Pomeranian for me to have brought him up here."

Mike meantime was snooping about the apartment; then he returned to take up a friendly position beside Jane.

"He is black, anyway," she laugh-

JOE LYONS IS IN BAD, PICNIC DINNER ENDS IN SCRAP BETWEEN RIVALS

(Henry's Diary, Thursday, Sept. 23.)
It's late and I ought to be tired, but I can't go to bed.

Of all the mean tricks ever played I think that Joe Lyons worked about the meanest on me.

When I went to school this morning I looked up ahead and what do you think I saw? Joe Lyons was standing on the steps trying to make a date with that horrid actress. She shook her head. He ducked.

The poor simple! Just before the bell rang he came up and asked me, "Maybe I didn't give him a black look. I told him to ask me again at noon. He did. I went."

But that picnic. It was real excitement.

All of us girls were dying to see whether Claribel, the Queen, would come with Peanut or with Pipe-Dream. Well, she came with Pipe-Dream. Peanut, having once had a taste of fast life, was not to be backed out. He was there too, with prim Vangy Waters.

Believe me, that queen played all her charms. She managed it so that, at the table, she sat between Peanut and Pipe-Dream. Then she divided her attention half and half.

It was comical. First Peanut would cast a darkened look at Pipe-Dream, and then Pipe-Dream would shoot a wicked stare at Peanut. Neither boy talked very much, even to the queen, and neither would talk to anyone else at all.

When the supper was over we decided we would have a game of old-fashioned prisoner's base. All the boys would try to catch Claribel. I saw Peanut getting madder and madder. There was a little mixup and first thing we knew there was Pipe-Dream sprawled on the ground.

"You tripped me," he shouted, and made a dash at Peanut. Peanut dodged and Pipe-Dream tripped over his leg again. Then even slow Pipe-Dream began to get riled. He picked up a big stick, hurled it at Peanut—again Peanut dodged. The stick went flying through the air and almost hit the queen. All the boys rushed to her. Several of them jumped on Pipe-Dream. There was all sorts of excitement. But the Queen liked it. She let Pipe-Dream take her home, and Peanut went back on the street-car with Vangy.

(More Tomorrow)

ed and stooped to pet him. "I would love to keep him—since he is lost."

"I'm awfully sorry," quickly and thoughtlessly John apologized, "but the couple I borrowed him from want him back—safe and sound."

Jane looked up, eyes wide and suddenly comprehending. Then she smiled, but said nothing.

John's dark red hue spoke volumes. Then knowing he was caught red-handed he blurted out the whole story. His lonesomeness, the girls in white starched dresses, the wonderful Sundays—all came out in a breathless tale of woe.

John wondered at the peculiar expression in Jane's eyes and a sense of holding back something whether it were tears or anger he was not quite sure.

But he was destined not to know at the moment for a knock at the door proclaimed the arrival of another Pomeranian finder.

John glowered at the young good-looking chap who brought it as if he were his most deadly enemy. But Jane's treatment of the new arrival and her reply that the dog was not her lost treasure in a way made the sun shine a bit more brightly for John.

He realized when the foot had closed on the chap that he, too, must now make his departure.

"I am sorry," he said, "that I cannot find the dog you so highly treasure, but I will leap at every black Pom I see with the hope—"

John laughed softly. If perchance there was the hint of a tear behind it all. "There isn't any dog," she confessed with color mounting high. "I was just as lonely as you—I wanted to wear my freshly pressed white dress and my wide picture hat and—"

When they were married a short time after there was an animal prowling about the tiny church during the ceremony, but he was not even a near Pomeranian, but he was a very much loved black dog with nondescript ancestors.

Tackle Is Rightly Named

No man on the football team is more truly named to suit his work than the tackle.

When tackles were first discovered, they were expected to do the heavy work of tackling. They still have the same job.

Then part of the line is the part through which attacks are most often driven. They are the nearest men to the play who have freedom of action.

A good tackle must first of all have real tackling ability. He must be fearless, and not too gentle. He must be a quick, shifty, heady, speedy fighter. The more weight he has with these characteristics, the better.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT PRESIDENTS?

Which presidents served more than four years but less than eight years?

Which president said, "He serves his party best who serves the country best?"

Which seven presidents of the United States married widows?

Which president was a soldier in the Black Hawk war?

Which president, a candidate at a subsequent election, received the electoral vote of but one state?

The answers to these questions will be given in this space tomorrow. Five new questions will be printed each day.

YESTERDAY'S QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Which president was the author of the first ten amendments to the constitution of the United States? James Madison.

Which three presidents were soldiers in the Mexican war? Zachary Taylor, Franklin Pierce, U. S. Grant.

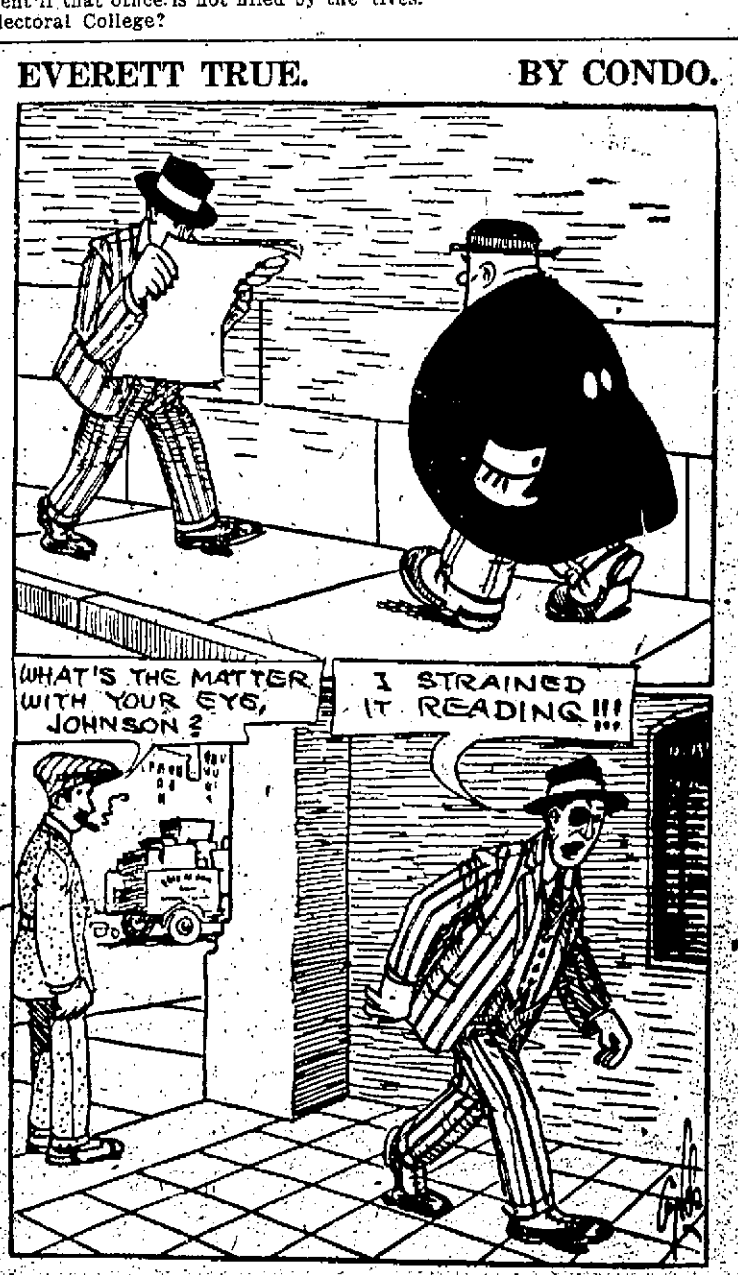

Who is secretary of agriculture in President Wilson's cabinet? E. T. Meredith.

AMERICA FIRST IS SELFISH SLOGAN IN OPINION OF EUROPE

Does Not Know What to Make of United States Attitude Says Church Man

NEW YORK. — The slogan "America First" is unpopular among Europeans who deem it an expression of selfishness, according to the Rev. Charles C. Macfarland, General Secretary of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, who has just returned from a series of religious conferences in Switzerland and a speaking tour of Western European cities.

"For an American to be in Europe at this time is humiliating and sometimes almost disheartening," said Dr. Macfarland. "I found the people there confused. They do not know what to make of America's present aloofness; it seems to them such a sharp contrast to our attitude during the war. I found the people of Europe industriously working at the problems of reconstruction. While their economic needs are great, one of their greatest needs at the present time is that of moral support."

"The American nation and the American people, on the whole, have not as yet suffered irretrievably in the estimation of Europeans," continued Dr. Macfarland. "They still believe in us and look to us for help. But thoughtful Europeans are disturbed about one phrase which frequently echoes across the sea — 'America First.' To them it sounds like the words that used to come from across the Rhine, 'Deutschland über alles,' not with the same aggressiveness, but with something of the same selfishness."

When cannon were first used, gunners were looked on as mechanics and had a guild of their own.

KEPT BUSY DENYING DROP IN PRICES

TERRE HAUTE.—Since the Indiana delegates to the National Retail Clothiers' convention in Chicago have returned home they have been busy denying the statement of their publicity committee that clothing prices will be lower this spring. "We would like to see them lower and perhaps they will be a trifle less," said the dealers, who didn't give their names for publication.

TOO MANY ARE PAST HILL-CLIMBING AGE

SAN FRANCISCO.—Because trustees of the City and County Federation of Women's Clubs have decided that of 1000 members, "200 are women past the hill-climbing age," the plan to purchase a clubhouse at the top of a steep hill has been abandoned.

Where Chinese Women Rule

The boatwomen of China have no need to agitate for women's rights, they possess them. The boatwoman whether she be a single woman or a wife or a widow, is the head of the house, that is to say, of the boat. If she is married, the husband takes the useful but subordinate place of deck-hand. She does the steering, makes bargains with the passengers, collects the money, buys supplies and in general lords it over everything.

SOUTHERN BAPTISTS TO SPEND MILLIONS ON NEW EQUIPMENT

Educational Institutions to Benefit by Program of the Church

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—Eleven million dollars for new buildings and equipment will be spent on the educational institutions owned by Southern Baptists during the next four years it is announced at the headquarters of that organization here. Approximately the same amount will be spent during that period in lifting the debts upon those institutions and increasing their endowment funds. Of this building fund, $2,275,000 will go to what are known as the Southwestern Institutions, including the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky., Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas, Baptist Bible Institute, New Orleans, La., and Baptist Theological Seminary for Negroes at Nashville, Tenn., while there will be extended upon new buildings at the Baptist colleges within the several states comprising the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention the following amounts: Alabama $275,000; Arkansas $225,000; Georgia $450,000; Southern Illinois $115,000; Kentucky $30,000; Louisiana $400,000; Mississippi $300,000; South Carolina $725,000; Tennessee $530,000; Texas $2,250,000; and Virginia $570,000. More than 20,000 pupils have enrolled in the Baptist schools and seminaries of the South this session, all the institutions reporting the heaviest registrations in their history.

Isn't it worth the difference?

You'll surely agree, Mr. Motorist, from the very first you put on a GOULD STORAGE BATTERY till the day you sell your car as a second-hand value, that GOULD is different than all other batteries.

Because! back of GOULD QUALITY are two factors, no other maker can possibly boast: A generation of experience in the hardest fields of battery service; and the GOULD SUPER-HARD DREADNAUGHT PLATES. GOULD Starting-Lighting Battery is one of a long-famous battery family—made in the same plant as the GOULD Submarine and Railroad Batteries.

Its basic and exclusive feature is the GOULD SUPER-HARD DREADNAUGHT PLATES (Dreadnaught, to distinguish them from all other plates) differing from all other plates in density and the extreme relative hardness of its "active" material. It is this lasting superhard quality of DREADNAUGHT PLATES that gives the GOULD Battery the power and lengthy endurance it is famous for—that constitutes the fundamental difference between the GOULD and other batteries on the market.

Remember the GOULD by its plates. A battery is as old as its plates. We can keep your present plates young, or renew them when worn out, with the long-lived, power-crammed DREADNAUGHT PLATES. We test, charge, refill, and repair all makes of batteries.

YOU certainly want to save money, and you would like to have better bakings.

Then use Calumet. It's the biggest thing you can do to improve the quality of your bakings—and lower baking costs.

Calumet is made in the largest, most sanitary Baking Powder Factories in the World. No Baking Powder is made under better conditions—none can be better in quality.

It contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by the U. S. Pure Food Authorities. An absolute guarantee that it is pure.

RAISES THE QUALITY—LOWERS THE COST OF ALL BAKINGS

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

BEST BY TEST

It received highest Awards, World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago—Paris Exposition, Paris, France—positive proof of its superior merit.

It is used by more housewives, domestic scientists and chefs than any other brand. That would not be the case, if it were possible to secure a higher quality leavener.

It is sold at a moderate price. All you have to do is to compare costs to determine how much you can save by buying Calumet.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Cream Cake Recipe

—3 cups pastry flour, 3 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1/2 cup butter, 1 1/4 cups granulated sugar, Yolks of 3 eggs, 3/4 cup cold water, Whites of 3 eggs, 1 teaspoon orange extract. Then mix in the regular way.

CIVILIANS IN CORK BOMB MOTOR LORRY SOLDIER IS KILLED

Mayor MacSwiney Much Weaker Today and is Unable to Talk, Bulletin Reports

CORK, Ireland, October 8th.—Civilians bombed a military lorry passing through Barrack street this morning. One soldier was killed and three wounded.

Two soldiers on the lorry opened fire on the attackers. The street was filled with people. Two men and a woman were shot in the legs.

MacSwiney Unable to Talk
LONDON, Oct. 8.—Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork was more refreshed this morning at Brixton prison, having passed a fairly good night. He had some sleep, says a bulletin issued today by the Irish Self-Determination league, but to his relatives, MacSwiney seemed weaker and much more exhausted.

The lord mayor suffers great distress after saying a single word, the bulletin declares. He tries to whisper something, gasps, becomes very exhausted and is unable to continue. The league bulletin issued at 12:30 p. m. said the mayor was suffering from trouble with his heart and was unable to hold conversation with his relatives.

CENSUS OF U. S. SHOWS GAIN OF 14.9 PERCENT

ing in incorporated places of less than 2,500 inhabitants shows an increase of 1,745,371, or 21.5 percent, whereas that portion living in purely country districts shows an actual decrease of 227,355, or six-tenths of one percent.

Fewer Tenanted Farms

Big decreases in the number of tenanted farms in such states as Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Missouri, Kansas, New York, West Virginia, and others are shown in the report.

While the total number of farms in the United States increased since 1910 from 6,361,502 to 6,459,998, or 1.5 percent, the increase was negligible compared with an increase of 10.9 percent in the previous ten years period.

In some of the best agricultural states there were actual decreases in tenanted farms.

In many of the smaller states there were also farm decreases and of the mid-west states Minnesota and Wisconsin alone showed increases in the number of tenanted farms, the former gaining 22,451 and the latter 12,069 farms in the ten-year period.

FOREST FIRES BREAK OUT IN NORTHERN WISCONSIN

SUPERIOR, Wis., Oct. 8.—Forest fires though under control last night started up again this morning in Douglas county. The worst fires are burning near Bennett, where if a strong south wind comes up the situation will become alarming. By keeping strict guard of any signs of fire, farmers have been able to prevent loss of lives.

Over 200,000 feet of timber was destroyed yesterday when the fires reached a saw-mill belonging to Jack Erickson at Copper Creek, near Black River in Douglas county. Farmers at the latter place are organizing today to fight the flames.

ALLIED DELEGATES IN CONFERENCE AT WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Delegates from five of the allied and associated powers met today at the department in the first preliminary session of the international communications conference. Representatives of France, Great Britain, Italy, Japan, and the United States were present. Foremost of the problems to be settled is disposition of the German cables seized at the beginning of the war.

CLOSE MILLS

LOWELL, Mass., Oct. 8.—Inability to find a market for goods at present high prices will result in closing of the underwear departments of the Lawrence Manufacturing company, throwing 3,500 persons out of work. The entire plant, including the hosiery department, will close down in the immediate future for the same reason, according to officials of the company.

WEDDING BELLS FOR RUBE AFTER SERIES

After the world series is over—win, lose or draw—Rube Marguard, one of the Dodgers' star left-handers, will shortly embark on the second sea of matrimony. She is Miss Naomi Malone, prominent Baltimore society girl. He secured his divorce from Blossom Seelye, vaudeville actress, several weeks ago. Miss Malone is a close friend of Mrs. Wilbert Robinson and a baseball fan from the first ball pitched until the last man is out in the ninth inning rally. So it's wedding bells for the "Big 100 beauty," who fazed for John McGraw but became a great pitcher for Your Uncle Wilbert. You! Rube can use the world series change all right.

PUBLIC FLEEED OUT OF A HALF BILLION YEARLY SAYS EXPERT

Americans Lose $500,000,000 Annually on Purchase of Fake Securities

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 8.—The annual loss to the American public through the purchase of fraudulent securities was estimated at $500,000,000 by Charles J. Andre, secretary of the National Association of Commissioners in testimony before the state blue sky law commission. Mr. Andre said about ten percent of the stock offered to the public was worthless, and that although 38 states have blue sky laws, some are so loose that practically everything gets through.

Mr. Andre's statement of worthless stocks was cut by Roy C. Osmond of Chicago, president of the investment bankers' association of America, who said only 5 percent of stock issues were bad.

VERSAILLES TREATY BETTER THAN NONE SAYS LLOYD GEORGE

LIANDUDNO, Wales, Oct. 8.—Premier Lloyd George in a political speech here today declared "the conflict of parties in America has led to the result that they have not signed a treaty of peace with Germany. He asserted that if there had been a conflict like that in Great Britain the latter would have had no peace and there would have been no treaty.

"There are some who criticize the treaty of Versailles," the premier declared. "Better that than a state of war should be going on for years and nothing done."

Obituary

URMA GRANT
Urma Grant, wife of Archie Grant, died at her home, at Wilton, Saturday, after an illness of eight months. Services were held at the home and at the Indian Creek Lutheran Church, remains were laid at rest in the Tom-mach cemetery. She leaves a husband and daughter, Gertrude, her parents, two sisters, and one brother. Mr. Grant is the eldest son of Samuel E. Grant of La Crosse by his former wife, Adeline Saxby Grant. The funeral was held Tuesday, October 5.

MRS. GEORGE WURZEL
With her husband lying in an adjoining room seriously ill with typhoid pneumonia, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Wurzel, wife of George Wurzel, 2101 South Sixteenth street, died at a local hospital yesterday, of blood poisoning, at the age of 21 years.

Mrs. Wurzel is survived by her husband, a six-months' old child, her mother, one sister and three brothers. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from Miller Bros. funeral parlors, and interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

Bridegroom—"The bills for your trousseau? Why, I thought your father paid these."

Bride—"It is customary, dear. But papa thought you would rather do it than to give him the humiliation of borrowing the money from you."

MEMBERS OF RUSS COMMUNIST PARTY ADMITTED AT ODDS

Dissatisfied Over Poverty and the Military Situation Declares Leader

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Existence of friction among elements of the communist party in Russia was admitted by M. Zinovieff, member of the central executive committee of the party, at the all-Russian conference just held at Petrograd, according to dispatches today to the state department.

Poverty, lack of food and the gloomy military situation were given by Zinovieff as the chief causes of dissatisfaction. Suspicion among the people as to the trustworthiness of their representatives in the central government, were declared contributing causes.

According to reports to the department Zinovieff noted with alarm the growing tendency toward bureaucracy among the soviets and declared it a chief cause of uneasiness.

Other dispatches today said reports in Warsaw indicated serious disturbances of an anti-bolshevik character in the Ukraine.

All in the Good Book

Bishop Hoss said at a Nashville place:

"The religious knowledge of too many adults resembles, I am afraid, the religious knowledge of little Eve. 'So you attend Sunday school regularly?' the minister said to little Eve.

"Oh, yes, sir."

"And you know your Bible?"

"Oh, yes, sir."

"Could you perhaps tell me something that is in it?"

"I could tell you everything that's in it."

"Indeed," and the minister smiled.

"Do tell me, then."

"Sister's bean's photo is in it," said little Eve promptly, "and ma's recipe for vanilla cream is in it, and a lock of my hair cut off when I was a baby is in it, and the ticket for pa's watch is in it."—Los Angeles Times.

Fish Naturally Cured

It seems impossible to be able to cure fish without using salt, yet there is a little island off the north coast of Sutherlandshire, Scotland, where nature cures fish without any aid. The island is surrounded by rocks and gaves, and there is one cave in particular where the curing is done. The reason is that it is a double cave, that is, there is another cave directly below it. The sea in the lower cave is always in, and strong sea air fills the upper one, and makes the air so salt that all you have to do is to hang up the fish and leave it. If you come back a few weeks later you find your fish thoroughly cured.

Shot off the Cannon

Eli Perkins and Bill Nye, the famous American humorists, were making a tour of the West Point foundry.

Pointing to a cannon, Perkins said: "It is almost as large as one I saw in Europe."

"How large was that?" asked Nye.

"Well, it weighed twenty-seven tons and the ball weighed thirty-six tons."

"Did they ever shoot it off?" asked Nye with pardonable curiosity.

"Yes," said Eli, seriously. "and the ball was so heavy that it stood right still and the cannon went twelve miles."—Boston Post.

INDIANS CONFIDENT OF VICTORY ON THE HOME BALL GROUNDS

Royal Reception Accorded Cleveland Players Upon Arrival from Brooklyn

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 8.—Smiling and confident, despite their two defeats, the Cleveland Indians arrived today from Brooklyn to engage the Dodgers in the fourth game of the world series here tomorrow. Conquering heroes have never received a more noisy reception. Streets leading to the Union station were lined with cheering enthusiasts.

"Wait until we get them in our own park," the crowds shouted. "We are with you to the finish and know you'll grab the championship."

The players hustled to their homes after the reception and planned to take a light practice at League park this afternoon.

SWORD FISH LANDED BY LA CROSSE BOY AT DOERFLINGER STORE

Fifteen feet long, the sword of a sword-fish caught near the Bahama islands by John W. Deneen, son of Daniel Deneen, 817 Liberty street, is on display, in a window of the Doerflinger store. It is the finest specimen of a sword-fish ever seen here. Mr. Deneen worked for five hours to land the huge fish after it was hooked.

LARSON BACKED BY N.-P. LEAGUE FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

Non-Partisans Bolt Morgan and Denounce G. O. P. Anti-League Plank

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 8.—John A. C. Larson of Eau Claire, democratic candidate for attorney general, will receive the support of the Non-Partisan league for this office. The league will support all the other candidates of the republican state ticket for offices and bolts W. J. Morgan because of his opposition to the league. The executive committee of the league in meeting yesterday afternoon denounced the plank of the republican state platform, criticizing the league, and declares that farmers have a right to organize.

"We denounced this plank as utterly untruthful and malicious," says a report. "The Wisconsin Nonpartisan league is a Wisconsin farmers organization. Mr. Morgan well knows that an organization comprising 25,000 farmers and their wives is not an agency seeking to undermine the principles of democracy and advocating bolshevism and anarchy."

NINE CONVENTIONS TO BE HELD DURING U. S. DAIRY SHOW

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 8.—The first of nine conventions in connection with the National Dairy show opened today when representatives of leading farm organizations met to consider livestock marketing plans.

The second to convene will be that of the National Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers, October 11.

Fifteen thousand dairy cattle entered for the judging events which begin next week, while machinery exhibits cover more than 110,000 feet of floor space.

Thirty-seven states and twenty foreign countries are represented either by exhibits or delegations.

SCHOOL BOY DIES OF INJURIES RECEIVED IN FOOTBALL GAME

JOHNNY REBS MARCH

HOUSTON, Texas, Oct. 8.—The soldiers of the Confederacy marched again today. There were not so countless thousands who tramped so buoyantly to battle more than half a century ago, but there were enough of them to make an imposing column, imposing despite the grayed hair and stooped shoulders of the marchers who made up in spirit what they lacked in physical strength and endurance. The line of march was less than two miles in length. The Stars and Stripes floated from poles and buildings on either side the line of march and hung from overhead alongside the stars and bars of the confederacy.

NEWSPAPER "AD" BROUGHT RESULTS TO NEW YORK MAN

Husky Service Men/Start Riot on Own Account/as Movie Plan Fades

ADVERTISED FOR MEN TO TAKE PART IN MOB SCENE

Promoter Mobbed When He Tries to Collect Fees

NEW YORK—Want a mob? Then advertise for it. But if you take Nathan Nathan's advice, you won't. Not a mob for life.

As the story was told in the Harlem court on Thursday, Nathan, for reasons best known to himself, inserted several advertisements calling for men, former service men preferred, to call Thursday morning to take part in a motion picture mob scene, at wages of about $5 a day.

Therein Nathan made his first two mistakes: first, in advertising for former service men, who average up fairly husky; and, second, in advertising for a mob.

One willing "Mobbers."

At 9 o'clock Nathan arrived at the address specified in a hall used by the Harlem Tenants' league as a social headquarters, and found a crowd of about nine hundred perfectly willing to "mob" or do anything else for $5 a day.

At this point Nathan made his third mistake. Instead of paying out the $5, he is said to have gone about attempting to collect $2.50 from each man. Something in the proceedings struck the crowd as slightly irregular, but, having been called to the spot to mob, they decided to mob anyway, free of charge.

"Mob" Enthusiastically

They made a rush for Nathan, whereat he fled, for his past errors in judgment by dashing into the building and looking the door, while the mob mobbed about outside with much abandon.

Somewhat elated for the police, and three detectives managed to spin through the crowd and rescue his belongings. Nathan, putting him under arrest on a charge of inserting misleading advertisements in a newspaper. All the way to the station house they were escorted by an enthusiastic mob.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 8.—Seven balloons, three representing the U. S., two from Italy, one from France and one from Belgium, have been entered in the International Gordon Bennett race which starts from Birmingham October 23.

The American pilots will be Ralph Tegen, holder of the international cup in the balloon Goodyear II; Richard E. Thompson in an army balloon, and H. E. Honeywell in the Kansas City II.

RAILROADS SET NEW RECORD DURING WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 25TH

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Big railroads set a new high record for the year in the volume of freight traffic handled during the week ended September 25. It was announced today by the American association. Cars loaded with commercial freight numbered 294,687 compared with 287,041 in 1919 and 291,980 in 1918.

KANSAS TOWN HAS BOMB PLOT MYSTERY

HUTCHINSON, Kans., Oct. 8.—A bomb plot mystery engaged the attention of local authorities today following the finding last night of a cylinder containing a powerful charge of explosives, under the approach to the main street viaduct in the center of the city. Absence of threatening letters and a close check recently which indicated suppression of radical activities here put officials at a loss to understand the presence of the bomb.

The bomb which the chief of police declared contained sufficient explosives to destroy the viaduct, the convention hall and other nearby buildings, was picked up by boys.

ORIOLES DEFEAT SAINTS AGAIN 8-5

Ability to Bunch Hits Gives Baltimore Second Victory of Series

BALTIMORE—Baltimore made it two in a row in the inter league series with St. Paul on Thursday, winning the second game by 8 to 5. It was a free hitting contest, with the home club better able to bunch its bingles and with one big inning to its credit. The new International league champions had no great trouble in winning.

Ogden went the route for the home team, while Manager Kelley of the Saints was called on to use a trio of his strong arm men. Merritt, a left-hander, started out for the pennant winners of the American association

PLAN PLEBISCITE FOR KLAGENFURT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—A plebiscite is to be taken in Klagenfurt, the capital of the former Austrian duchy of Carinthia, to determine whether it is to belong to Austria or Jugoslavia. Trade Commissioner Upson at Vienna today reported to the department of commerce. Soldiers of both countries are guarding the frontiers.

and after a bad first inning went along in good fashion until the fifth, when the Orioles started a bombardment that drove him to the showers, after three runs had been chalked up with but one out. Williams took up the burden, but lasted only one-third of an inning, during which time three more counts were put over. Combe then took the mound and stopped more trouble after loading the bases. He permitted only one hit during his occupancy of the hill.

The fielding on both sides was brilliant at times. Shortstop Bokey of Baltimore and Third Baseman Rapp of St. Paul shined in this respect. The third game of the series will be played on Saturday. ## REPUBLICANS PLAN TO VISIT HARDING ON SPECIAL TRAIN

La Crosse Citizens Invited to Meet Wisconsin Delegation in Milwaukee-October 17

Are there any good republicans in La Crosse who would like to join a Wisconsin delegation which will visit Warren C. Harding and Calvin Coolidge at Marion, O., on October 18, the last day of the front porch campaign?

Mrs. C. S. Van Auker, member of the state central committee, has received a letter from the headquarters of the state central committee notifying her of detailed plans for the trip. The letter follows:

Oct. 4th, 1920.
Mrs. C. S. Van Auker, La Crosse, Wis.

"As a member of the state central committee you are undoubtedly acquainted with the plan of the national committee to have a Wisconsin delegation visit Warren G. Harding and Calvin Coolidge at Marion, Ohio, October 18th, the last day of the front porch campaign. Plans have been partly completed and were outlined by Mr. Harry B. Cristlow of the visiting delegation bureau at the organizational meeting of the state central committee and it is my belief that we should co-operate with the county chairman and associate county chairman to secure a delegation that will in size be representative of the overwhelming sentiment for Harding and Coolidge in Wisconsin.

"If a sufficient number of people agree to make the trip a private train will be secured which will leave Milwaukee Sunday evening, October 17th, and return Tuesday morning, October 19th, and a rate of approximately $35.00 round trip including berth can be secured.

"It is estimated that between thirty and fifty thousand visitors from seven states will be in Marion on that day and several special features have been arranged. Wisconsin's quota must be there!

"As you, secure names of people willing to make this trip kindly forward them to this office so that plans for the trip may be completed. Anticipating your hearty co-operation, I am (Signed)

"MRS. W. M. H. WENDT."

COX CAMPAIGNING IN KENTUCKY TODAY

ENROUTE WITH GOVERNOR COX, Oct. 8.—On his way to Louisville where tonight he will wind up his two-day speaking campaign in Kentucky and Tennessee, Governor Cox today addressed crowds that gathered at stations to greet him.

The governor referred in his address at Nashville to Senator Harding's denunciation of the league and expressed a willingness to accept the issue, as stated by the Republican nominee.

SUPERIOR MERCHANTS FIGHT CITY MARKET

SUPERIOR! Wis.—Charges that Mayor Baxter and various city officials were neglecting their official business were contained in suits filed here by Superior mercantile houses to compel the mayor from using city property, employees and resources in the conduct of the city market.

The plaintiffs ask that pending the final outcome of the case, the defendants be restrained from "wasting the city assets and from diverting their time, as city officials to, running the market."

Judge N. J. Rieford of Ashland will be called to hear the case.

MORGAN OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN WITH AN ATTACK ON BLAINE

Condemns La Follette for Setting up Independent Candidate to Run Against Lenroot

DECLARES THAT BLAINE IS NOT A REPUBLICAN

McCoy Stands for all Planks in Republican State Platform

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 8.—William J. Morgan, Republican nominee for Attorney General, officially opened his campaign for election here Thursday, and in a noonday speech at the Majestic Theatre made a strong appeal for the national Republican ticket, urged the re-election of Senator Irvine L. Lenroot, condemned Robert M. La Follette for causing an independent candidate to be put in the senatorial race and scored John J. Blaine, nominee for governor, for not endorsing the Republican national ticket and platform, and for not coming out in support of the State Platform.

Mr. Morgan recited the history of the Platform Convention in Madison, in defense of his attack on Blaine, and declared that Blaine is not a regular Republican and is not entitled to a place on the State ticket.

Refused to Support Party
"I sent word to him twice after the platform convention and before the Republican State Central Committee meeting on October 1st that he had to choose whether he would wear Townley's collar indefinitely or break with Townley now. On October 1st I insisted that he state his position to the State Central Committee, and that I be allowed to state mine. Mr. Blaine refused again to declare that he would stand on the Republican platform."

"I have no time for this talk about a straight Republican ticket, when it isn't a ticket of straight Republicans. Mr. McCoy has assured me that he would support every bit of legislation to which our party is pledged in its platform, and has authorized me to say that as far as State issues are concerned he stands on the Republican State Platform with both feet. He takes the position, and rightfully, that there is nothing in it inconsistent with the platform declarations of the Democratic party on State issues."

Mr. Morgan pointed out that Blaine was nominated on the Republican ticket by less than thirty percent of the votes cast in the Republican primary.

Has Two Platforms
"I do not believe he can convert the other seventy percent to Townleyism in three weeks," he declared. "Especially when he insults the Republican of his state by bolting the Republican platform and declaring that he will make his campaign on the same principles for which he stood in the primary—and in the primary mind you he stood on two platforms with both feet, by his own declaration—the La Follette platform and the Nonpartisan League platform."

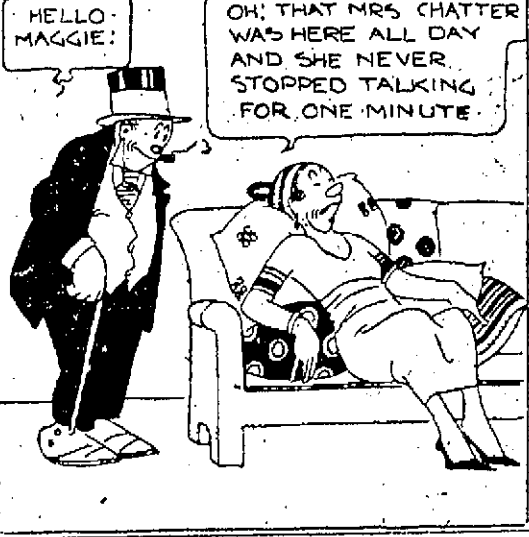

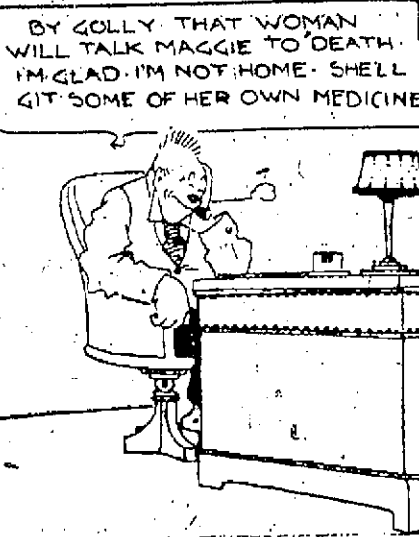

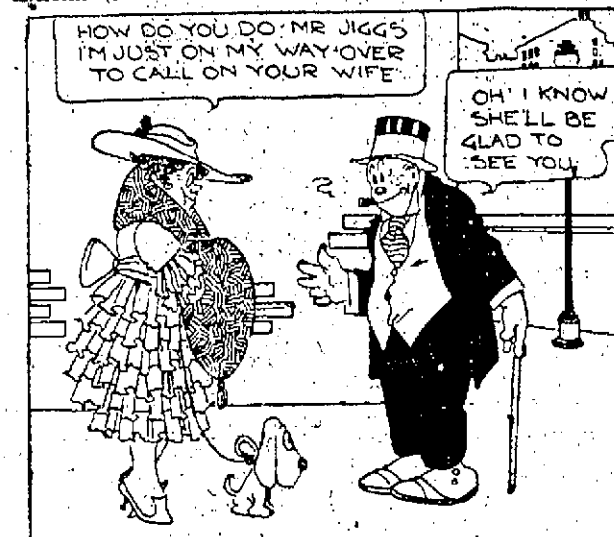

La Follette, in Mr. Morgan's speech was termed a "habitual bolter by proxy" who refuses to abide by the primary election laws which he himself had framed and passed.

"He has placed in the field as an independent a candidate against Senator Lenroot, his dummy Thompson, who was defeated in the primary on his own platform. Senator Lenroot deserves re-election on his record. We are entitled to have his services in the senate. The one danger to his election is the failure of his managers to appreciate that both Blaine and Thompson are part of the La Follette Nonpartisan League machine, and that Thompson is the better vote getter of the two; that every boost for Blaine is a knockout for Lenroot—and Blaine could hardly be elected without carrying Thompson over with him if his vote is large."

On the question of the national ticket Mr. Morgan said:

For Harding
"A word on the national situation. The Republican party relinquished the administration of national affairs eight years ago. It now asks you to examine its record for the past sixty years, during all of which its representatives were at the head of our government; and it asks you to contrast that record with the one made by the present Democratic administration. The Democratic party is loud in its protestations of love for the common people, but I think it must have endeavored to show that love by following the text, "Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth." On that theory the Democratic party has given abundant evidence of its undying affection.

BRINGING UP FATHER

"The Republican party has something more to offer as a reason for your support than condemnation of the Democratic rule of waste and extravagance in national affairs. We believe that the hope and aspirations of the American people may be realized if Warren G. Harding and Calvin Coolidge, by their election, are given the opportunity of effectively administering the principles of the Republican party in the orderly process of government. The work of administering the affairs of the national government in the condition the nation now finds itself is a work of reconstruction demanding the same and progressive leadership of men who will co-operate without any spirit of autocratic intolerance in securing to the people of our land the blessings of an orderly Republican form of government. Warren G. Harding and Calvin Coolidge are men capable of such leadership. It is unnecessary for me to spend much time advocating their election to the state of Wisconsin, for I am convinced from the en masse that I made in this State in the primary campaign that the people of Wisconsin will give them an overwhelming majority in November, and I have every confidence that Warren G. Harding will give us a wise, a sound, and a constructive administration, and will justify the vote he receives in Wisconsin."

Attacked League
"Mr. Morgan continued his attack on the Nonpartisan League. He reiterated his charge that the League 'with its one man boss control is the most dangerous political machine that has ever entered Wisconsin'; and he made a strong appeal to the voters to prevent such a catastrophe as that which has visited North Dakota."

SEATTLE FIREMEN WON'T HAVE ENOUGH WORK SAYS PUBLIC

SEATTLE.—Representatives of big taxpayers here appeared before the city council to protest against granting city firemen a day off in seven because it would mean $150,000 a year more salary.

"In Seattle God sprinkles the streets and puts out fires. Firemen don't work," declared Harry Denton Moore, one of the protesters. "In May they worked only two hours and 15 minutes," said Charles F. Clisco, whose papa owns banks and things, while other retired butchers and apartment house owners held that firemen should work a 24-hour shift before their "off day." Council refused to heed the protesters.

Iron Industry For India

It is likely that at no distant date, India will have an extensive iron industry. The commencement has already been made in the establishment of two important and successful iron and steel works, namely, the Bengal iron and steel works at Kulti, which turns out 10,000 tons of pig iron a month, and the Tata iron and steel work at Sakchi, about 155 miles from Calcutta, which has a monthly production of about 20,000 tons. Most of this pig iron is converted into steel, which is largely used locally into the production of rails and the smaller structural shapes, but even with the additional furnaces under construction, which in the case of the Tata works will more than triple its previous capacity, not more than a fraction of India's needs of iron and steel will be supplied from the two works.

Farms Increase in Value

Statistics collected by the bureau of crop estimates of the United States department of Agriculture show that farm plot lands throughout the country increased in value per acre by nearly one-half in the last four years. Four years ago plot lands in the United States had the average value of $5.839. In 1917, the average was $62.17; in 1918, 168.38; in 1919, $74.31, and in the last week in March of the present year it was $90.01.

Ruth Roland Tells How To Instantly Have a Beautiful Rosy-White Complexion

MISS RUTH ROLAND

New York.—The beautiful young actress, Miss Ruth Roland, now successfully starring in that splendid serial, "The Adventures of Ruth," is famous for her beautiful complexion. When her friends inquired about it, she said: "It's all due to a toilet preparation called derwillo which I use twice daily. The experience I have had prompts me to make my secret public. This wonderful derwillo instantly beautified my skin and its continued use has made the result permanent." When Mae Edna Wilder, the well known beauty specialist, was interviewed in reference to Miss Roland's remarkable complexion, she stated: "Anyone can have a beautiful complexion, when they know how. It's a very simple process, until you try it you have no idea of the marvelous results. The very first application will astonish you. Go to the toilet counter of any drug or department store and get a bottle of derwillo. Then make the following test: Examine your skin critically before your mirror. Note especially its appearance. Then cleanse your skin with a good cold cream (Liska Cold Cream I have found to be the best), then apply derwillo as directed. After you have made the first application look in your mirror again and note the surprising change. A peach-like, rosy-mauve complexion, a baby softness comes to the skin; it matex the skin rosy-white, velvety and radiantly beautiful. It is wonderful for a dark, sallow skin, shiny nose, freckles, tan, dry skin, coarse pores, pimples, blackheads, chapped, rough skin, ruddiness, wrinkles and many other facial blemishes. Now that short sleeves are in vogue you will want beautiful hands and arms. There is nothing like derwillo for this purpose. Derwillo method is absolutely harmless and will not produce or stimulate a growth of hair. It is superior to face powder, as perspiration does not affect it, therefore it stays on better. Over two hundred thousand who have used it have had the same results as Miss Roland and I am sure if you will give it a fair trial you will become just as enthusiastic as she is and always use it in preference to any other powder or beauty-preparation."

NOTE—When asked about derwillo one of our leading druggists said: "It is truly a wonderful beautifier, away ahead of anything we have ever sold before. We are authorized by the manufacturers to refund the money to anyone who is dissatisfied. This guarantee would not be possible unless the product possessed unusual merit." It is sold in this city under an iron-clad money-back guarantee by all department stores and up-to-date druggists including Hockschler Bros. and C. A. Begun.

BIG ULCER ALL HEALED

"Now I Can Walk," Says Mrs. Southcott of Medina

"Here is another letter that makes me happy," says Peterson, of Buffalo. "One that I would rather have than a thousand dollars."

"Money isn't everything in this world. There is many a big hearted, rich man who would give all he has in cash to be able to produce a remedy with such mighty healing power as Peterson's Ointment. In all of our druggists for 50 cents a large box."

Read this letter, written February 14, 1918, by Mrs. Albert Southcott, of Medina, N. Y. It seems like a miracle, but it is true, every word of it.

I know it because I get similar letters almost every day from people who have used my ointment for old sores, eczema and piles.

Is it any wonder I am happy?

Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sirs—

"I was an untold sufferer from an old running sore and ulcer. I had tried most everything without any relief from pain. A friend told me of your wonderful ointment and the first box took away the pain that had not left me before in years, and after using just nine dollars worth of the salve I am cured. The ulcer was 3 inches by 2 inches, is all healed and can walk. Never, never will I be without Peterson's again."

"You may use this to recommend your ointment if you wish. I cannot say enough to praise it." Yours truly, Mrs. Albert Southcott, Medina, N. Y.

RELEASE OF BRITISH PRISONERS DEMANDED OF SOVIET RUSSIA

Threatens Action Against Bolshevik Government if Demand is not Met

BRITAIN CHARGES VIOLATION OF AGREEMENT MADE IN JULY

Soviet Makes Counter-charge of Failure to Fulfill Terms

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Great Britain has threatened to take "certain action" against Soviet Russia if steps are not taken by October 10 for the release of British prisoners held by the Bolsheviks, says the Herald, organ of the British government, which today prints what purports to be the text of notes exchanged by the British and Soviet governments.

Leonid Krassin, head of the Russian Bolshevik trade mission here has replied on behalf of the Bolsheviks, saying that it will promise to fulfill the conditions required by Great Britain when the latter carries out her part of the bargain made last July for the mutual release of all prisoners, and cessation of all hostile action.

The note sent to Moscow by Earl Curzon, British secretary for foreign affairs was dated October 1, according to the Herald. It charged the Russians with "flagrantly violating" the conditions which the Soviet accepted in July regarding prisoners and propaganda.

Krassin replied on October 6 with a charge that Great Britain had not only failed to fulfill her part of the conditions, but had helped enemies of the Soviet government.

Regarding Russian prisoners under British control, Foreign Minister Curzon said in his note: "A very limited number of Russian subjects are in our hands, and Great Britain desires to get rid of them. They are being retained solely as a means of inducing the Bolsheviks to fulfill their undertakings."

NOVEL BLOUSES AND BELTS FOR AUTUMN

BY CORA MOORE

New York's Fashion Authority

NEW YORK—To stay or not to stay is the question every season brings up in connection with the separate blouse.

The tailored suit, however, is assured a vogue and an unusual one, not only for fall but all through the winter and as a blouse of one sort or another is an essential accompaniment it is safe to say "blouses will stay."

The model at the left is a real novelty. Its material is designed to go with a velvet slip matching its sash and revers.

There seems to be a strong fancy for heavy, chiffon-cloth blouses of some pronounced color, as, for example, the one sketched which is of old blue.

Interest in blouses has brought in to evidence many novel belts. Jeweled effects are particularly interesting and there are lovely things in silver, as in the ones sketched. They are of washable kid, the one inset with blue stones surrounded with tiny cut steel beads and the other overlaid with a lattice work of silver.

VACANCIES IN U. S. COURT TO BE FILLED BY NEXT PRESIDENT

Effect of the Election on Supreme Court Real Danger of Reactionary Victory

PADUCAH, Ky., Oct. 8.—Effect of the presidential contest upon prospective U. S. supreme court vacancies was declared by Governor Cox of Ohio, in an address here today, to be "the real danger of a reactionary victory, next to the scrapping of the league of nations."

The democratic presidential candidate stated that at least four vacancies on the high court were in prospect and referring to the senate's control over confirmations and to Senator Harding as the "reactionary" candidate, he added:

"Besides, it would naturally follow that a reactionary president would appoint four reactionary members of the supreme court."

There are several reasons why the senate oligarchy should not be permitted to win this election," he said, "throughout the years the senate has trespassed upon the authority of the house of representatives. The constitution provides that all legislation providing for the raising of revenues shall be initiated in the house. Yet there has probably not been a tariff measure in the last fifty years which was not changed in its every line after the enacting clause once it reached the senate. By the nomination of one of its own members as the reactionary candidate for the presidency, it now has the opportunity of annexing the executive department. If the senatorial ring should win the election it would in addition to controlling the president, also possess the constitutional right of confirmation of members of the supreme court appointed by the president."

"This would bind the country to reaction for the better part of a generation. It is a simple matter for the people to make a change in the executive and legislative branches of the government, but not in the judicial. As I see it, this is the real danger of the reactionary victory, next to the scrapping of the league of nations."

Governor Cox spoke here upon arriving from Nashville, Tenn.

LEAGUE IS BUYING MORE GENEVA HOTELS

GENEVA.—The league of nations is negotiating to purchase another building for 100,000 pounds. The picture shows the National Hotel, the leading hotel here, which was recently purchased by the league for 240,000 pounds (about $1,000,000). The league has made offers for the purchase of smaller hotels and villas around Geneva, in preparation for the first meeting of the assembly of the league of nations here in December. As a result of the league's activities, rents have soared from fifty to one hundred per cent in Geneva and there is much grumbling among the local population.

METHODIST CHURCH ARRANGING BUDGET FOR COMING YEAR

The finance committee of First Methodist church plans to complete the survey for the annual budget next Sunday afternoon. Many have already returned their pledge cards signed for the current year, and the committee is arranging for sufficient number of teams to reach all contributors who have not yet made their pledges next Sunday.

With the generous help of some of our friends the budget of last year was entirely cleaned up and at the same time 86 per cent of the large October appropriation for the general benevolence of the church has been paid also, an amount about five times the usual annual contribution of the church for such purposes.

Japanese Jitneys

A report from Japan states that a wholly electric car company has recently been organized at Osaka, for the purpose of providing trackless cars for use in various parts of the country. This is the project of the kind in Japan.

SIXTEEN SPEECHES ON THURSDAY IS HARDING RECORD

ON BOARD SENATOR HARDING'S SPECIAL TRAIN, Oct. 8.—Bearing the standard of republicanism again along the political borderland, Senator Harding headed into Missouri today to preach his gospel of representative government and a foreign policy free from embarrassing entanglements.

An afternoon meeting at St. Joseph and a night address in the Kansas City convention hall were the high spots of the day's program. Besides there were a number of short stops scheduled.

The nominee's voice showed today the strain of yesterday's vigorous campaigning when he made sixteen speeches in Iowa and Nebraska.

Superfluous Hair Now Removed Roots and All!

(New and Instantaneous Home Method)

A boon to women troubled with superfluous hair is the new photoelectric process. It is totally unlike the electrolytic, chemical and other methods heretofore employed for the removal of hairy growths. It is the only thing that enables one to remove the hair completely—roots and all—in one's own home, without the assistance of an expert. The result cannot be doubted, for the user sees the hair-roots with her own eyes.

A stick of photoelectric, with easy directions, can be had at any drug store. It is entirely harmless (a child could safely eat it), odorless and non-irritating. It is an instantaneous method, and so thorough that the skin is left perfectly smooth and hairless, bearing not the least evidence of its former disfigurement.

SPECIAL SERMONS BY ROWLISON TO START ON SUNDAY

Rev. C. O. Rowlison, after months of preparation, will deliver at the First Congregational church, starting Sunday, a series of sermons on vital issues of the day. Special musical programs have been arranged for these services, which will be delivered on four successive Sundays in October. The sermon topics follow:

October 10, "Roadside Guideposts."

October 17, "Working Schemers of God."

October 24, "Patience of Believers."

October 31, "The Art of Spending Money."

A Hard Job

"Wilks is always rushing around; he won't even stop to speak half the time."

BADGER ELECTION MACHINERY SET IN MOTION BY HULL

Official Ballot Already Sent to County Officials for Printing

THREE BALLOTS TO BE HANDLED IN ELECTION

Ballots on President, Referendum and State Officers Separate

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 8.—The election machinery is already set for November 2. Secretary of State Mor-lin Hull has sent the official ballot to each county in the state for printing. The ballots this time will be three in number which must be printed in each county. First is the referendum ballot which must be printed on ink paper. Second, the state ballot which is printed on white paper, and third, the presidential ballot which is printed on blue paper.

Contrary to general belief three ballots will be handled this fall. The presidential ballot is entirely separate from the ballot for state officials and is printed on a different colored paper. The referendum ballot is distinct from the state ballot.

County clerks are complaining that they will not be able to print the presidential ballot on blue paper as required by law. The statute provides that this ballot should be printed on a blue paper and the paper shortage finds many printers in the state out of a supply. Attorney General Blaine has ruled that where a printer did not have blue news paper he could use some other paper, the nearest possible to blue but not white or pink.

In the different counties of the state the ballots are sent to election precincts of which there are nearly 2400 in the state. With the large women's vote which will be cast this year the result of elections for all officers may not be known for two or three days after election.

HEARD BALLOT, NOT BEAUTY LECTURE

TOLEDO, O.—Four hundred women who crowded a theater here, prepared to learn the secrets of beauty and to carry away in their note books
the priceless recipes for charm, heard instead how to mark the perfect ballot and made notes on the technique of registering instead of the technique of massage. Miss Margaret Edwards, dancer, decided she couldn't divulge the secrets on an hour's notice and so, instead, Prosecutor Allen J. Seney gave a nonpartisan talk.

WE'LL SAY HCL 'LL DO THAT!

LONDON.—A coroner's jury here admits that high prices can cause insanity. Frederick John Hallam, shoe manufacturer, was found to have killed himself while suffering temporary insanity due to business worries occasioned by high prices.

Disease of Thyroid Gland

The thyroid gland is most important organ in the body, and in its functions is intimately related to the functions of other important organs, such as the heart and circulatory system and the central nervous system.

Disorders of the thyroid gland are characterized most frequently by disturbances in the action of the heart as shown by a marked increase in the number of beats. Instead of the normal 60, 70 or 80 beats per minute, there may be over 200. Due largely to the circulatory disturbances, there is shortness of breath, especially on exertion.

Patients with thyroid disorder naturally suffer from nervousness and sleeplessness. The disturbances in the nervous system often manifest themselves in a diminished nerve control of the blood vessels, so that there may be flushing. Not infrequently the eyeballs become very prominent, due to their protrusion.

A person suffering from thyroid disease should be under the care of a physician. The disease is amenable to treatment, some time by rest in bed, supplemented, perhaps, by medication, at other times by surgical operation.

Q. I read in the paper that there wasn't anything that would remove the growth of superfluous hair on the face except by using an electric needle. Will you kindly tell me where I can get one? I can't get it at the drug store in this city.

A. The electric needle used in removing superfluous hair is not a simple contrivance which you can purchase in a drug store. On the contrary, it is an appliance which should be used only by a physician who has had considerable training.

LENROOT NEEDED TO GIVE HARDING SENATE SUPPORT

MILWAUKEE.—A plea for the election of Senator I. Lenroot on Nov. 2nd, is made by John T. Adams, Vice Chairman of the Republican National Committee in charge of the National headquarters. In a statement issued through Joseph S. Smith, director of publicity for Harding and campaign in Wisconsin, Mr. Adams said:

"It should be pressed upon the people of Wisconsin that the election of a Republican Senator is almost as vital as the election of a Republican president. Senator Harding will be the next president of the United States, but it is not assured that the Republicans will have a good working majority. If we are to have a real Republican administration, we must have a majority of at least seven. Such a majority cannot be had without the Republicans in every state in the North, West, and East, where Senators will be elected this year, as well as in the states bordering the solid South, working in the remaining weeks of the campaign as they have not worked since the Chicago Convention.

Must Have Majority
"Republicans everywhere are optimistic; the reason for that optimism should be capitalized, not neglected. Any Republican can visualize the situation Mr. Harding would face if he should be compelled to deal with a Senate almost evenly divided.

"The issues before the Senate will be tremendous. The ending of the war conditions, the question of a League of Nations, the whole tax policy of the Administration, the merchant marine, the tariff, and a hundred other grave problems can be solved only with the aid of the Senate.

"The Senate must be safely Republican to solve them properly. To realize this one has only to consider the case of Senator Lenroot, as an illustration.

"The nation cannot afford to lose

POCKET-SIZE STILL DISCOVERED BY U. S. PROHIBITION AGENTS

ASHEVILLE, N. C.—A pocket still is the latest device captured by federal prohibition officers. Agents working out of the local office recently captured such a miniature still near Saluda. The whole outfit was so small the officers put it in their pockets and brought it to the city for exhibition purposes. The officers called it a "pocket still." It is about one table-glass capacity and manufactured an article for home consumption. It was said by officers that the still was complete to the smallest detail.

the services of Senator Lenroot. Senator Lenroot is not Wisconsin's asset alone, he is the nation's asset. Men like Lenroot, of great constructive ability, trained in legislative experience, and even tempered, will be needed in the Senate of the United States for the next ten years, as never before in the history of our country. He is a Republican and the Republican party is deservedly proud of him. He is a liberal statesman, who serves America and all the people first, last and all the time.

One of Several
"Now Senator Lenroot is just one of the several eminent senators here in the Middle West that the Harding Administration must have. Their election is a necessity for country and party, and this necessity ought to be pressed home on every last voter at this time.

"It is as essential that the Senate be Republican as it is that Mr. Harding be elected, as he will be, by the greatest popular vote ever given any candidate for the highest office in the land.

Let our aim be to make the senatorial contests as important as the contest for the presidency."

PARIS ADOPTS THE "CLEMENCEAU HAT" FOR EVENING WEAR

PARIS.—Little did the former Premier Clemenceau, when he journeyed to the front during the troubled days of 1918, think that the funny little slouch hat that he wore on those occasions would become a special headgear to be worn with evening clothes. The Clemenceau hat however seems destined to have a great future.

"Ever since the war men have been feeling the need of a special headgear," a prominent Paris hatter says. "The silk hat is too formal; the opera hat is too theatrical; the bowler looks provincial and soft grey hats and straw hats are out of place with evening dress. The Clemenceau hat which is black, light to wear, easily transportable and capable of being crushed into an overcoat pocket in case of need, will solve a long felt want that well dressed men feel especially since the war."

The Clemenceau hat occupies a prominent place at the Lepino Exhibition in the Grand Palais.

POLISH ARMY WOULD HAVE BEEN LOST BUT FOR AID OF FRANCE

Member of French Commission Declares Only Help of His

SOVIET HAD SUPERIOR FIGHTING MACHINE

Menace to Western Europe is a Real One, He Says

POSEN, Poland—An official of the French military mission in Poland has told the Associated Press correspondent that the Polish army would have been conquered by the bolshevik armies of Russia if the French had not supported the Poles. This notwithstanding the fact that the Poles beat back the Russian drive on Warsaw.

The French official based his statement upon his belief that the Russian army was superior to the Polish army as an effective fighting machine, with the exception of the German trained troops of Posen. The Frenchman said he believed the Russian organization has been and still is, under estimated and because of this tendency to belittle the Russian armies the menace to Poland's existence, if not to all western Europe, remains imminent and real.

The official said some Russian units were poorly equipped but it was not true the army was "a bare-foot rabble." He was convinced the majority of the Russian divisions were "well-organized units of good fighting men, much better officered than the Poles." The Poles had 25,000 officers but only 5,000 of them ever went to the front although they were sorely needed there, he said. There was evidence that certain Polish companies had fought without officers, he asserted, and that during the retreat these were without commanders.

NEW ILLINOIS PENITENTIARY MODEL PRISON

STATEVILLE, Ill.—Penologists from all parts of the United States and from other countries are visiting the new Illinois state penitentiary, nearing completion, which is considered a model prison. The buildings are reinforced concrete and are fireproof. The dormitory of the cellhouse is circular and every cell is an "outside room." Each cell has hot and cold water, toilet, electric light, bed, table and chair. A single guard in the center of the prison ground controls the locking and lighting of all the cells. There are eight cellhouses of 248 cells each. Sixty-four acres in the center of the prison farm are enclosed by a concrete wall.

had spent a year in Russia and had been under fire at the Polish front told the correspondent he had seen the Poles "plant their artillery in the most ridiculous places, on the exposed sides of hills and right in the open, when they could have readily concealed it and made it effective."

A useful aviator who had flown over the front several times when "battles" were said to be in progress said what he saw of the fighting was "two armies keeping about three hours apart, the Poles retreating when the Russians advanced, and Russians running when the Poles turned and advanced." He said this "schedule sometimes got disarranged and there was a collision between opposing detachments," but he had not witnessed any of these clashes.

A number of Polish officers with whom the correspondent talked said they were forced to admit the French saved the day but the weakness of their officers was explained by the fact that in former years Poles had not been permitted to hold commissions in the army, either in Russian, German or Austrian Poland, and that the time had been too short to develop a staff of highly trained officers.

A Blaze of Poonies

From the hue and texture of the distant clouds something can be learned of the character of the storm that produces them. The hydrographic bureau at Washington informs ship captains that when the cirrus cloud plumes seen radiating from the storm are faint and opalescent in tint, the approaching storm is an old one of large area; but if the clouds are "of snowy whiteness, projected against a blue sky, it is a young cyclone of small area but great intensity." —Youth's Companion.

How The Strike Against High Prices Is Being Won

For a long time, remarks the New York Times, "high prices seemed like the weather, about which, as Mark Twain said, everybody talked but nothing was done." Then the buying public, reacting at last from the wave of extravagance that swept the country in war time, began a few months ago to rebel against the ever diminishing purchasing power of the dollar. The result of this action is seen in the dramatic price cuttings in the wholesale market last month, which affected wheat, corn, oats, wool, cotton, automobiles, textiles, clothing, food-stuffs, metal, leather, and many other commodities. The wholesale prices of these commodities have declined on the average about 20% below the high prices of February, according to R. E. Edmundson of the New York News Record, a commercial daily, who predicts that these cuts are "certain to be reflected in a reduced cost of living—removing the usual excuses for striking to get higher wages." Dispatches from various cities report that the procession of falling prices in the retail trade has already begun.

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week, October 9th, will be read with great satisfaction by the public. It gives a comprehensive review, drawn from all sources of information, of the conditions of trade in the United States, including the prospects for the country's getting back on a lower price level without affecting the hours or wages of labor.

FATE OF JEWS IN RUSSIA PITIABLE REPORTS WRITER

Regarded by Gentiles as of Coolie Caste and are Brutally Treated

LONDON.—The fate of the Jews in Russia is anything but an enviable one, says an article in the current number of the Zionist Bulletin.

According to the writer, 98 per cent of the forced laborers in Kharkov are Jews, who are treated brutally. The Gentiles about them are coming to regard them as a coolie caste, and they are shot at least as freely as other Russians for counter Revolutionary activity.

Before the war, the article explains, about 66 per cent of the Jews in Russia were engaged in commerce, and most of the remainder were artisans or factory workers. When the soviet government closed down private commerce as being tainted with capitalism, most of the Jews lost their livelihood. Most of the non-Jewish Russians who were likewise made destitute turned to farm labor and have been able to scrape along, but Russian villagers, steeped in centuries of antisemitism, would not tolerate Jewish settlers among them.

While the soviet government barred actual pogroms, it has not insisted on access to the land being given to the Jewish traders whom it dislodged from their counting-houses, says the writer, so when forced labor came in last March, a very large number of Jews were visibly "unproductive persons," and ripe for industrial conscription, or for death if they objected.

"Almost all the Jews were entered as 'of no occupation,' irrespective of whether they knew a trade or not," says the writer in the Bulletin. "A terrible hunt began for the Jewish masses by red soldiery, with the willing help of the antisemites. The Jews were shut up in the courtyards of the labor barracks and had to camp day and night in the open, almost without food. The compulsory work consists mainly in the heaviest kind of labor, such as road building and the cleaning out of dirty places in town and country."

MA ROBINSON

MRS. WILBERT ROBINSON

They are saying that since women now have the privilege of placing their "X" opposite the names of the candidates at the polling stations they ought to rise up in a body and take a deeper interest in sport as well as orphan asylums.

But Ma Robinson has been interested in baseball for a good many years back. Thirty to be exact. That's when she married Your Uncle Wilbert. He was then playing with the old Philadelphia Athletics. Most every day you'll find her in a box seat just back of the Dodger's dugout. She knows as much about when it's time to start warming up a relief pitcher as Robbie himself.

Days when she doesn't see the games are few. She calls for a complete explanation of the matinee play by play by Uncle Robbie when he gets back to the hotel. If Robbie's boys happen to lose the explanation is tough going.

Ma is a regular mother to all the boys. She knows all their strong points and weaknesses, just as Robbie does.

Being the wife of a pennant-winning manager doesn't excite her,

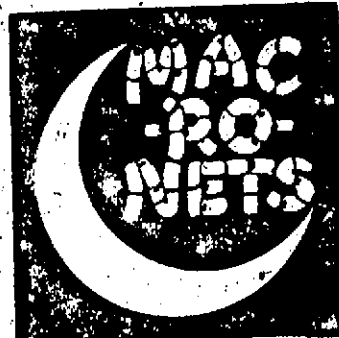

though. She's been through the mill of happiness before.

Naturally she thinks Brooklyn is the greatest city in the world notwithstanding the fact that many people who live there will disagree with her.

She maintains that Your Uncle Wilbert won the pennant, because he used kind words instead of sharp ones with his players.

The Golden Rule will win a pennant in any league, says Ma.

LA CROSSE THEATRES COMPANY 8% Cumulative First Preferred Stock

Par Value $100 Per Share.

Dividends payable semi-annually on the 15th days of February and August.

Dividends exempt from Federal Normal Income Tax and almost wholly free from Wisconsin Income Tax.

Callable prior to Jan. 1, 1926 at 105; prior to Jan. 1, 1927 at 104; prior to Jan. 1, 1928 at 103 and at 102 thereafter.

The La Crosse Theatres Company owns the ground and buildings occupied by the La Crosse Theatre on South 5th St., the Bijou Theatre on South 3rd St., the Rivoli Theatre on North 4th St., and leases the Majestic Theatre on Main St. It owns the equipment, organs and furnishings of all these theatres. The Company also owns one-half of the Common Stock of the Cooper Amusement Co., which owns the new theatre being constructed on the North Side and which leases and operates the Casino, Strand and Rialto Theatres.

ASSETS

After applying the proceeds of the sale of this Preferred Stock the net tangible assets are estimated to be well in excess of three times the amount of this stock to be presently offered.

RESTRICTIONS

Rigid restrictions govern the issuance of additional amounts of this Preferred Stock. The Company agrees that no dividends in excess of 8% will be paid on the Common Stock unless the Company's surplus fund after payment of such dividend shall be equal to at least two years' dividends on this Preferred Stock. The Company will not create any new mortgage except purchase money mortgages, nor create any new Preferred Stock having priority over the authorized Preferred Stock, nor create or guarantee any evidences of indebtedness maturing later than one year from date of issue.

SINKING FUND

Beginning January 1, 1925, the Company agrees to set aside a fund each year equal to 3% of the greatest amount of Preferred Stock outstanding at any time and this fund is to be applied to the purchase or redemption of Preferred Stock at a price up to the redemption price for that year.

GENERAL FACTS

The La Crosse Theatres Co. owns exceedingly valuable and well-known downtown La Crosse real estate and derives substantial income from the rent of offices and stores in addition to the large revenue from the operation of its theatres. Its theatre business has grown and developed until it now ranks as one of the large and successful businesses of La Crosse. The management is in the hands of successful theatre men all of whom are financially interested in the Company and no change of management is contemplated. The earnings of the Company are now running in excess of four times the dividend on this Preferred Stock, and the operation of the new Rivoli Theatre will materially increase this showing. The Preferred Stock is rigidly restricted and beginning with the year 1925 the Company agrees to retire 3% of this issue each year. In view of these facts we believe we are offering to La Crosse investors an attractive 8% investment that will be readily subscribed. Dividends will accrue from the date of payment on the stock. Dividend checks will be promptly mailed to Preferred Stockholders twice a year. This Preferred Stock may be purchased in amounts from $100 up and we particularly welcome subscriptions from small investors who will then be interested in our Company. Subscriptions may be made at our office over Bijou Theatre, 113 South Third St., La Crosse, Wis., or may be sent by mail. Subscription blanks will be provided on request.

AT THE THEATERS TODAY
Rivoli—Annette Kellerman in "What Women Love."
Majestic—Mary Miles Minter in "Nurse Marjory."
Casino—Shipwrecked Among Cannibals. Special production.
Bijou—Edith Hallor in "Man's Plaything."
Strand—William Russell in "A Live Wire Hick."
Rialto—J. Warren Kerrigan in "The Dream Cheater."

The famed diving Venus, Annette Kellerman, in her first modern story, "What Women Love," is entirely different than anything she has ever done. Bernard McConville, who has written for Mary Pickford, Norma Talmadge and other well known stars, has made a story to measure for the maritime luminary, that displays her aquatic talents generously and shows her as a twentieth century athletic girl. But the story was also careful to weave the talents in such a manner that all her talents are displayed in a most natural manner and not forced on the screen for the sake of showing just what she can do.

The treatment of the story is fresh, bubbling and thoroughly delightful from all standpoints. It also serves to show Annette Kellerman as a delightful comedienne, a role in which she presents an entirely new self to the world.

The supporting cast includes Wheeler Oakman, Ralph Lewis, Walter Long, Carl Luman and Bill Montana. The short reels are unusually good and the music is also splendid.

Majestic
 What proves to be a delightful and pleasing play is "Nurse Marjory," starring Mary Miles Minter at the Majestic for the balance of the week.

The story is from the pen of the famous English satirist, Israel Zangwill. It is based on the willfulness of the young daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Donagel, who insists on working and enters a sanitarium as a nurse.

It is here she meets John Danbury, a member of the house of commons, the idol of the "common people." He knows her as Nurse Marjory, and is led to believe that she is the daughter of a fish monger. Danbury finds himself desperately in love with her and presses his cause. Many humorous situations develop in the sanitarium and later in the poor quarters of Nurse Marjory's supposed to be mother, Bibby, the fish monger.

The story moves along rapidly, provoking laughter that seems incessant. Other members of the cast are Clyde Fillmore, Little Frankie Lee, Lydia Yeaman, Filds and Frank Leigh. Larry Semon in the "Fly Cop" is one of the funniest comedies seen here this year, making this an all comedy program.

Bijou
 A cast of exceptional merit made "Man's Plaything" that opens at the Bijou today. Grace Davidson, Edith Hallor, Montagu Love and Stuart Holmes all play leading roles. It sounds like a cast for some churchly benefit instead of a photoplay.

The theme of the picture is one that we all know only too well, but has been twisted to give it a new angle. It is an intensely interesting photodrama with many thrills and surprises such as you will find in this sort of a picture. In fact there are too many thrills. A comedy completes the program.

Casino
 It took Americans to do it! No, we are not speaking of war, we only refer to the photoplay at the Casino last evening, "Shipwrecked Among Cannibals." The picture is certainly a thriller and will remain the balance of the week.

Edward Laemmle and William Alder went into the wilderness of Dutch New Guinea and secured intimate pictures of the Kia Kia Head Hunters, without leaving their own heads. STORY OF LOVE'S FORCE MRS. CHAPLIN'S LATEST

How often are bright college days martyred in the cause of youthful folly. It is this situation in which Evelyn Robertson and Oscar Bennett played the chief parts that caused the upheaval of a class war and piled the destinies of an entire settlement at the feet of Polly Hopkins, played by Mildred Harris Chaplin, in "Polly of the Storm Country," which will be seen at the Majestic theater, commencing Monday.

As Polly Hopkins, Mrs. Chaplin meets Evelyn Robertson while delivering the weekly order of fish to the fashionable Robertson home on the hilltop. She meets Bob Robertson when he by chance stops his roadster at her humble shanty. As fate would have it Bob and Polly fall in love. And this romance is shattered when Evelyn to save her own face causes Polly to be disgraced. Misfortunes come thick and fast upon Polly. Her idea that "love is stronger than hate," vanishes and she is enmeshed in a plot to get the revenge that is due her for her sufferings, only to find that her original idea was correct.

LIVESTOCK SHIPPING BOARDS HANDLE BIG VOLUME OF BUSINESS

Thirty Thousand Carloads Were Shipped to Various Stockyards During the Year 1919

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 8.—The Wisconsin Livestock Shipping Association is handling an immense volume of business in the shipping of livestock to the Chicago, Omaha, Milwaukee, and South St. Paul central stockyards.

It is estimated that approximately 508,000 cattle, 302,000 calves, 1,100,000 hogs, 241,000 sheep and 222,000 lambs were shipped from Wisconsin during the year 1919, and of this number the cooperative association handled 30,000 carloads. In a questionnaire sent to a large number of shipping associations, one question was asked as to the percentage of stock of the respective communities shipped by them. The average of 72 answers was 65 percent.

Prior to 1908 there were no cooperative livestock associations in the state but in that year organizations were formed at River Falls and East Ellsworth. Both were successful from the start and the shipping association at East Ellsworth is undoubtedly one of the largest in the state. By the early part of 1917, the total number of associations approximated 240. By August 1, 1919, the department of agricultural economics had received $50, and it is safe to assume that the present number of associations in the state will approximate 300.

The total value of the livestock handled by the associations is $56,220,000. This is probably two-fifths of the total value of all shipments for Wisconsin.

The largest factor in the success of such a cooperative society is that of the results which it will produce. Returns from 70 shipping associations relative to the expense incurred from the expense incurred in terminal market charges, yardage, feed, and bedding charges. The range of expense is from $20 to $40 a car. The total freight expense has been reduced to $8, the average terminal market expense is $30 to $35. The total expense will probably be in the neighborhood of $93.

Through the organization of a national federation it is expected that better results can be obtained in regard to questions that concern commission firms, sanitary laws, railways, packers and in fact all general improvements. It is thought that such an organization will make greater headway against the obstacles that confront the stock producer both at home and those at a distance.

The Gulf Stream of the Pacific
The gulf stream of the Pacific ocean is called the Japan current which is formed in the same manner as the gulf stream of the Atlantic. The trade winds blowing from the tropics bank up the warmed ocean waters in the Yellow Sea corresponding to our Gulf of Mexico, and thence they pour out between Japan and Formosa. The stream thus formed passes south of the Aleutian chain, along the western coast of Alaska and down the west coast of North America. Hence it comes about that the whole southern coast of Alaska has a temperate climate. It is warmed by the Japan current.

GROWING DEAF WITH HEAD NOISES? TRY THIS

If you are growing hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness or if you have roaring, rumbling, hissing noises in your ears go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength), and add to it 1-4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Glandular nostrils should open. Breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who is threatened with Catarrhal Deafness or who has head noises should give this prescription a trial.

KIDNAPPER HELD IN FRISCO CONFESSES MURDER OF DENTON

Death of Wealthy Los Angeles Mining Promoter Planned on Joy-ride, Says Rodriguez

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 8.—Joseph Rodriguez under arrest here for the alleged kidnaping of Mrs. Villaral, an 18 year old girl, confessed to the murder of J. C. Denton, wealthy Los Angeles mining promoter, according to a statement by Police Captain John O'Meara.

Rodriguez's confession, Capt. O'Meara said, was to the effect that Rodriguez and Lou Heller strangled Denton on the night of June 6 or June 8 in the presence of Mrs. R. C. Poete, who, the police declare was Denton's housekeeper, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crowhurst, who have been questioned extensively in Los Angeles.

"Joy Riders" Plot Murder
The murder, Capt. O'Meara quoted Rodriguez as saying, followed a "joy ride" in which Rodriguez, Mr. and Mrs. Crowhurst, Mrs. Poete, and Heller participated. "Previously members of the party had discussed Denton's wealth."

O'Meara declared Rodriguez said there "had been some talk of croaking Denton for his money" during the ride. On the joy riders' return to the Denton home, Rodriguez was said to have confessed. Heller was quoted as urging that they not "right now," whereupon Rodriguez and Heller fell upon Denton, knocked him down and strangled him with a rope.

Body Carried to Cellar
Rodriguez is alleged to have said Denton's body then was buried in the cellar of the house, where it was discovered recently under a mound of earth sealed up in a small room.

The local police after hearing the alleged confession, immediately telegraphed to the Los Angeles police to arrest the persons mentioned.

Rodriguez was further alleged to have said he took a large sum of Denton's money as well as stocks, bonds, and other securities. The value of which he was unable to estimate.

HARDING CAMPAIGN AMONG WOMEN GOES STRONG IN STATE

Bosshard Reports Enormous Amount of Work Done in Organizing Rural Districts

Every county in the state is thoroughly organized now by the women for Harding and Coolidge, according to Ex-Senator Otto Bosshard, of La Crosse, president of the Harding-Coolidge Club of Wisconsin. This has meant a tremendous amount of hard work, because Wisconsin is largely rural. In many sections women workers have been compelled to drive from 300 to 500 miles to interview women personally and to arrange for precinct township, county and congressional district chairmen.

One of the main efforts of the women was directed to securing a large registration, and as a result 75,000 Wisconsin women voted at the primaries, most of them Republicans, organizers declared. Precinct captains among the women took their places at the polls on primary election day. Both as officials and as workers for the candidates.

An intensive speaking campaign is being conducted by the women classes in political education are being held and publicity is well directed.

Nor are the women "going it alone." They have been active in forming Harding and Coolidge Clubs with a membership of both men and women. Chapters have been formed all over the state, with precinct presidents, vice-presidents and secretaries.

Effective work will be done in Wisconsin by the women to secure a big vote for the Republican candidates.

INDIANS HELD SAFE IN THIRD CONTEST OF WORLD'S SERIES

Superba Southpaw Baffles Slugging Speakerites While the Dodgers Take Six Hits

CLEVELAND CLUB GETS ONLY THREE SAFETIES

Zack Wheat's Error Enables Speaker to Score Only Run

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Sherrill Smith, Brooklyn's southpaw hurler, pitched himself into a place in the world series hall of fame on Thursday when he held Cleveland helpless in the third game of the super pennant struggle, which the National leaguers won by 2 to 1. Smith, who might aptly be termed the "stormy petrel" of baseball from the fact that his connections with the Robins is the thirteenth since his debut on the professional diamond, found this circumstance neither a hoodoo or a handicap. Any jinx hovering around the twirler from Mansfield, Ga., found lodgment in the ball, which baffled the desperate efforts of the Indian war club swingers throughout the entire nine innings of the game.

Smith, whose hurling easily won him a place among the stars of the baseball classic, such as Mathewson, Coombs, McGinnity, Bender of former series was supported by his teammates in a manner which fully equalled the best exhibition of fielding seen in many similar conflicts since the National commission assumed a protectorate over the autumnal struggle of the major league premiers. The Superbas backed up their pitcher like the secondary defense of an all-American football team and it was almost impossible for the Cleveland batters to get a drive through the various combinations which shifted with lightning speed whenever the ball was hit.

Only Three Hits
Three hits only were made off the winning hurler, and of these Catcher Steve O'Neill gathered in two and Manager Speaker one. Speaker made his hit a double, in the fourth; O'Neill followed with a single in the fifth and another in the eighth inning. Had Zack Wheat played Speaker's double safely Smith would have been credited with a world series shutout.

Of the twenty-eight Indians who faced the Robins' star left-hander, only five reached first. Of these, three arrived on hits and two on passes. Speaker scored on an error, two were left on bases and O'Neill was once the victim of a double play, and Jamie son, who ran for him in the eighth inning met a similar fate. Smith fanned 109 batters, of which twenty-nine were strikes, forty-one balls, eight four strikes, five fouls, five field outs, and eighteen ground outs.

Brooklyn, while never free from the fear of a Cleveland rally, batted its way to victory in the first inning, as it eventually proved, by falling on the puny offerings of Ray Caldwell as soon as he took his place on the mound. What Manager Speaker saw in Caldwell's curves when the latter warmed up will always be a mystery. Certainly the lanky former Yankee had nothing but deliberation after he entered the box. Of this he had plenty and to spare. A base on balls, an error, and two hits netted the Superbas the two runs that won the game before Speaker could wigwag away Ray and replace him by Duster Mails. The former Robin, while not as effective as his rival Smith, was not an easy proposition and, backed up by some splendid fielding, prevented any further scoring. But with the Brooklyn port slder going at the pace he had set for himself, the initial inning slip of the Cleveland combination was his undoing.

Divide Applause
The outbursts of applause which greeted the rapidly succeeding feats of first one and then the other team were spontaneous and impartial. Partisanship, except in a few individual cases, was notably absent. It may have been due to the fact that these thrilling plays came so rapidly that the Brooklyn partisans never had time to set themselves for a genuine outburst of concerted home team "rooting."

The baseball fireworks opened in the second inning when Right Fielder Griffith made a great running catch off Joe Wood's bat that robbed the Cleveland outfielder of a double. A moment later Konechey knocked down Sewell's blazing slash and retired him at first with a throw to Smith. Both players were required to doff their caps repeatedly as they came to the bench. In the third Konechey and Kilduff figured in another star play. O'Neill's smash fairly tore its way through the hands of the Robins' first sacker, but the ball was deflected by Konechey's efforts to stop it and shot off toward Kilduff, who scooped it up and flung it back to Smith who had rushed over to cover the bag.

Again in the fifth session, the Brooklyn infield figured in a fast double play. Olson knocked down Mails' wicked drive and, recovering his balance with an effort, tossed the ball to Kilduff, forcing O'Neill at second, whereupon Kilduff whirled and nailed Mails at first.

Speaker's players let themselves out under this incentive in the sixth, when two feats in handling the ball aroused the throngs. Wheat lifted a booming foul fly along the right field line and Burns chased the descending sphere clear to the grandstand where he brought up with a slam against the iron railing, but not until he reached in among the spectators occupying a front row box and with his gloved hand speared the ball almost in the lap of a woman. Myers then singled to left, but when Konechey hammered a red hot hopper to Wambagans, a lightning double play, Wambagans to Sewell to Burns, checked what looked like a certain run getting rally.

It was while Ray was on the mound that Manager Robinson's boys got their two runs. Olson, Brooklyn's shortstop, who has proved the most consistent player of either team in reaching first, his record for the three games being eight out of twelve, drew a pass in Brooklyn's half of the first. Jimmy Johnston promptly sacrificed him to second and he advanced to third when Sewell fumbled Griffith's grounder. Olson completed the circuit on Wheat's hit to left and Griffith went to the midway. From that point the right fielder scored, when Myers hit to short right.
This Speaker, with the unintentional aid of Zack Wheat, saved his team from a shutout. In the fourth the Cleveland leader hit down the third base line. The smash was ardently zood for two bases, but Wheat let the ball go through him and it rolled to the far corner of the lot. Speaker continued around the bases and scored so easily that Wheat made no effort to throw the ball home.

TITLE CONTENDERS ENROUTE FOR NEW FIELD OF ACTION

Dodgers and Indians Move to Cleveland Where Play Will be Resumed Saturday

DODGERS HAVE DECIDED EDGE ON SERIES TO DATE

Speaker Confident of Even Stand after Saturday's Clash

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The Brooklyn Dodgers and Cleveland Indians, contenders for world's championship baseball honors, were enroute today for Cleveland, where play will be resumed tomorrow.

The Dodgers have a decided "edge" on the series to date—two victories, and one defeat. In the three games, Brooklyn battled for a team average of .208 and fielded .904. The Indians have an average of .165 with the bat and have fielded at .982.

Tris Speaker and his tribe confidently expressed their opinion that the series would be on even terms after tomorrow's encounter.

Manager Robinson's proteges, flushed with their two successive victories, had all confidence that nothing could stop them.

That section of the sporting world which backs up its views with cash today seemed to be inclined to share Brooklyn's feelings of optimism, for the odds switched, making the National leaguers a two to one favorite.

The popular postime here today was to guess who the rival managers would pitch in tomorrow's fray. The general guess was that Coveleskie, who pitched the Indians to victory in the first game, would be on the mound for Cleveland, and that Robinson might pitch either Marguard or Pfeffer.

A big ovation greeted the Cleveland Indians when they arrived from Brooklyn today, despite their two defeats at the hands of the Brooklyn Dodgers in the world's series. The two teams will open a four-game series here tomorrow.

In a proclamation issued by Mayor W. S. Fitzgerald yesterday, he called upon all Clevelanders to do "honor to their team."

That the fans have not lost interest in the series is indicated by the applications for tickets to the games and admittance to roofs of houses and buildings in the vicinity of league park. Property owners were swamped with offers ranging from $1 to $25 for roof standing-room.

Clerks of downtown hotels were endeavoring to classify their lists of reservations for tomorrow and Sunday. By using cots all hotels are preparing to lodge two to four persons in a room wherever necessary, and even then some of the larger ones are turning away applicants.

Mrs. J. R. Speaker of Hubbard, Texas, mother of Tris Speaker, attended the games here.

Reports that "scalpers" were at work selling world's series tickets caused renewed precautions to be taken by the police and officials of the Cleveland baseball club today.

Through plans made by E. S. Barr and, business manager of the local club, there can be no "scalping" on the bleacher tickets. Only one will be sold to each person when the gates open tomorrow morning and the holder must pass immediately into the grounds.

PIRATES EASILY TRIM CARDS 5-2

Southworth Leads Attack at Portage Contest; One a Homer

PORTAGE, Wis., Oct. 8.—In the second game of the big league series here on Thursday afternoon, the Pirates reversed the tables on the Cards, winning by a score of 5 to 2. Both teams went on a rampage at bat, with the Pirates better able to bunch their hits when safeties meant runs.

Southworth lead the attack for the Pirates garnering two hits, one of them a homer, in four trips to the plate. The deciding game will be played on Friday, with Hamilton and Haines doing the heating.

Time in the horse races on Thursday was exceptionally fast.

ST. MARY'S GRIDERS COACHED BY FORMER LA CROSSE PLAYER

When the St. Mary's football team comes here next Saturday to play the Normal School aggregation, the game will be of especial interest to local gridiron fans. "Tommy" Skemp, formerly star quarterback of the Normal team, and pupil of "Tubby" Keeler in the football art, is coaching athletics at St. Mary's. The Winona outfit has a strong team, and though Tommy has as much pride in his Alma Mater as anyone else he is coming down here with the intention of making the locals pay for his defeat last week.

Things are running along smoothly at the Normal Field this week. The team as a whole suffered no ill-effects from last Saturday's grilling and the line-up tomorrow will probably include the same men who started the game at St. Paul.

Normal Field is in fine condition for tomorrow's contest. The field was kept in shape all summer, and is well covered with grass. Particular attention has been paid to the bleachers, all necessary repairs have been made, insuring comfort and safety to the spectators.

WITTICH RESIGNS DIRECTORSHIP OF NORMAL ATHLETICS

Will Devote all His Time to Training of Teachers of Physical Education

Mr. W. J. Wittich announces his resignation as director of athletics at the Normal School. The place will be filled for the present by Mr. Robert Nohr, Jr., an instructor in Physical Education at the school.

In a letter to President Cotton, Mr. Wittich sets forth his reasons for making the step. The text of the letter follows:

"Owing to the rapid growth of my department within the past two years, to the added responsibilities brought about by use of the new gymnasium and swimming pool, and to the enormous amount of time necessary in the placing of our graduates in the spring and summer of each year, I feel that the added responsibility of directing the athletics of this institution has become very burdensome. I ask to be relieved of this extra duty so that I can devote all of my time to the more important work of my department, that is, the training of teachers of physical education. May I ask that if this request be granted it go into effect at once?"

The request was granted by the president of the school and Mr. Nohr.

took over the athletic affairs yesterday. The rapid growth of the school of physical education is what impelled Mr. Wittich to take the step which he did. Figures show that during the year 1919 there were only 32 seniors; 12 advanced freshmen and 61 freshmen enrolled as compared with 65 seniors, 18 advanced freshmen and 82 freshmen at the present time. The number in the physical training department has increased from 119 to 163, a gain of 46. The number of men from the college and other departments who take the physical training has been increased by 28, and the number of women, by 20.

The increase in the number of men in the physical education department has been almost remarkable. There are twice as many men enrolled now as there were last year, bringing the average of men up to about fifty percent.

The use of the large new gymnasium and swimming pool has added teachers. Since the completion of the new building it has become a regulation of the school that no student of Physical Education may graduate until he has proven his ability to swim. In an interview Mr. Wittich issued the following statement: "I wish to thank the public of La Crosse, the lovers of good, clean, wholesome athletic competition for their loyal support during the past two years, during which time I had charge of the athletics of the Normal School. I sincerely hope that their support will be perpetuated, for it is so very essential to the development of championship teams, and to the running of athletics at the Normal."

THE FINE ART OF FEASTING

A Revel in Carthage

FLAUBERT, the great French novelist, gives an appalling description of a feast in the old days of Carthage—

"Then the tables were covered with meat, antelopes with their horns, peacocks with their plumes, sheep boiled whole in sweet wine, haunches of the camel and of buffalo, hedgehogs with garum, fried grass-hoppers, and preserved dormice. Everything was running over with pickles, truffles, and asafetida. Pyramids of fruit fell in ruins over portions of honeycomb."—SALAMABO—GUSTAVE FLAUBERT.

As the first New York colonists feasted

Gaunt, half-starved Ichabod Crane gazed enraptured at the feast in Van Tassel's mansion—

"There was the doughty dough-nut, the tendered oyl-kock, and the crisp and crumbling cruller; sweet cakes and short cakes, ginger cakes and honey cakes, and the whole family of cakes. And then there were apple pies, and peach pies, and pumpkin pies; besides slices of ham and smoked beef; and moreover delectable dishes of preserved plums, and peaches, and pears, and quinces; not to mention broiled shad and roasted chickens; together with bowls of milk and cream, all mingled higgledy-piggledy."—WASHINGTON IRVING'S SKETCH BOOK.

IN years gone by, when civilization was cruder, mere quantity, mere extravagance were considered impressive. Up until the time of our grandfathers or our fathers one did not dine, one feasted—tables groaned under the weight of food.

Today ten courses of the richest foods do not indicate that the hostess is a woman of the world. The proof demanded now is more subtle, far more difficult;—exquisite quality in every detail.

Many hostesses attain this perfection in every detail except one—the coffee. This is the ultimate test—the test on which the average hostess fails.

Think over the most distinguished hostesses in your set. Remember what perfect coffee they serve. Ask some of them which coffee it is. See if the reply is not "Yuban."

By the greatest coffee merchant in the world, this coffee was selected from all others to be served to his intimate friends.

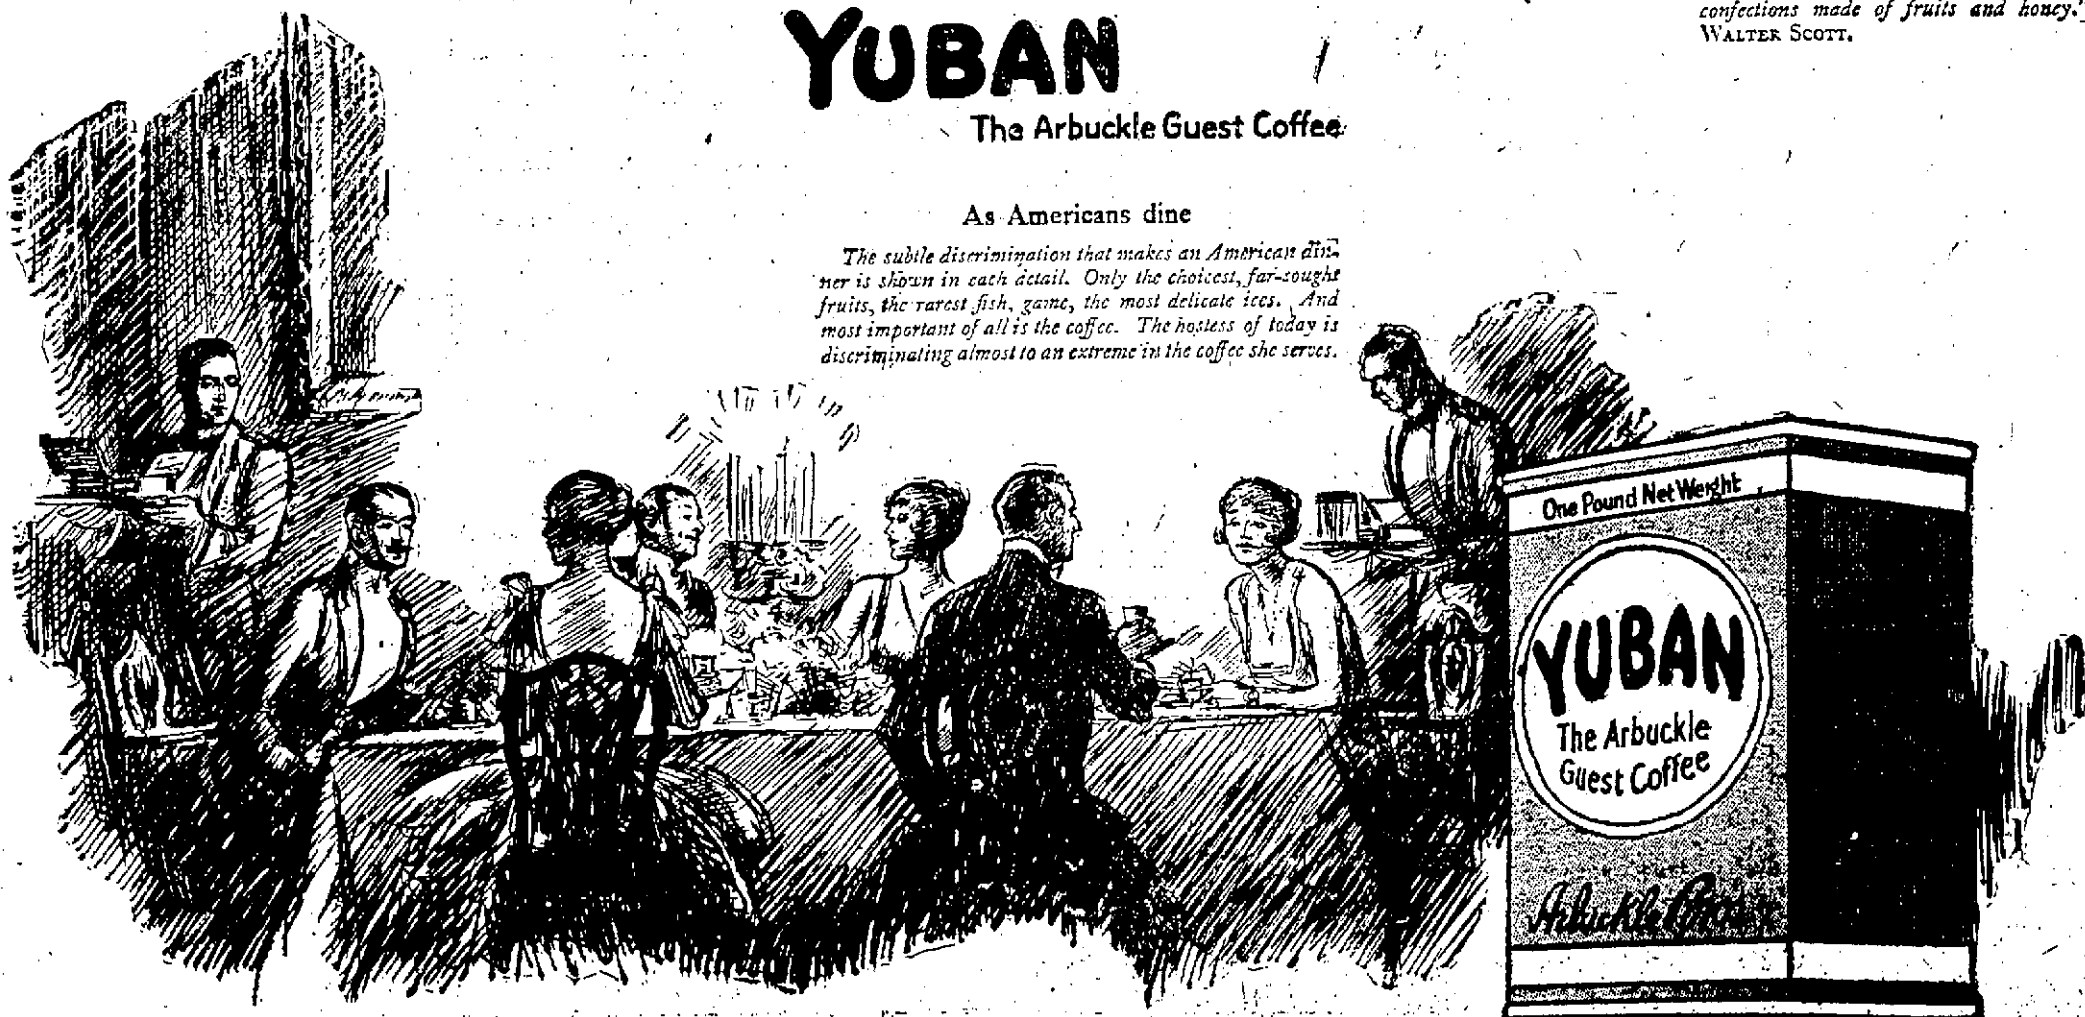

Wherever taste is exceptionally exacting, there you will find that Yuban is served. Its fragrance, its fine, mellow aroma, its rich flavor, are giving many a clever hostess distinction.

YUBAN

The Arbuckle Guest Coffee

As Americans dine

The subtle discrimination that makes an American dinner is shown in each detail. Only the choicest, far-sought fruits, the rarest fish, game, the most delicate ices. And most important of all is the coffee. The hostess of today is discriminating almost to an extreme in the coffee she serves.

In the early days of Merry England

"The 'homely' fare in 'Ivanhoe' consisted of swine's flesh dressed in several modes, also fowls, deer, goats and hares and various fish and the smaller sorts of wild fowl, together with huge loaves of cakes and bread and sundry confections made of fruits and honey."—IVANHOE, WALTER SCOTT.
